

MANY PERSONS WERE DROWNED

TOWN WRECKED BY CLOUDBURST

BRICK BUILDINGS SWEEP AWAY

SHERIDAN, Wyo., June 12.—A wall of water from a cloudburst in the mountains last night swept down Clear Creek onto the town of Buffalo, partly wrecking the place and probably causing a number of deaths. Early today the water was entering the second story windows of the telephone exchange and all communication had ceased. Buffalo has about 2000 inhabitants and is situated in the Clear Creek canon, the sides of which are steep and high. While only a few blocks wide the town is more than a mile long. The telephone operator at Buffalo called Sheridan and reported a great wall of water had swept down the canon, carrying away several brick blocks. Many people had been drowned, the operator said, but no idea of the number was obtainable. "The water is now flowing into this town through the second story windows and no further communication was possible. Automobile relief parties were made up here and started for Buffalo, which is 40 miles from Sheridan.

PLANS SUBMITTED FOR WIDENING TRACKS

Work on Gorham Street Building Stopped

GRADE CROSSINGS WILL COST $200,000

Municipal Concrete Plant May be Established

The City State Street railway's plans for relocation and widening of its tracks in different streets were received at the office of the city engineer this forenoon. The plans contemplate a larger turnout in Church street and include a turnout in Pine street between Stevens street and the Highland school. This will be a new turnout and will do much to improve conditions in that neighborhood. There is no turnout at the present time between Branch street and the end of the line in Pine street and a turnout at the point mentioned in the petition is badly needed.

Building Temporarily Condemned
Francis A. Connor, inspector of buildings, has called a halt in the erection of a two story wooden structure at 712 Gorham street. The building is being built for Gabriel Kahan by Contractor Leonard T. Moody and the most serious objection found by the inspector of buildings was that the steel beams used in the building are not heavy enough or are being overtaxed. The inspector has ordered seven new steel columns to replace the one already installed and has ordered that all work be suspended until the new beams have been put in. The permit for the building was issued April 10, and the estimated cost as given on the application for the permit was $3500.

The Minor Question Again
The legislators of the last few years have twisted and turned the word "minor" at one time and then giving it in the "school sense," so that the matter has been made to resemble a Chinese puzzle. Truant Officer William F. Thornton has received an opinion from the attorney general advising him that from now on persons under 21 years, in a school sense, are minors, and in order to go to work they must present to the prospective employer an age or schooling certificate or an employment card.

The Grade Crossing Bills
The last meeting having to do with the separation of accounts in the grade crossing work in Walker and School streets will be held at the North station in Boston this afternoon. The total cost of the work is estimated at $200,000, and the city is called upon to pay one-fifth of that amount. City Solicitor J. Joseph Hennessy will represent the city. E. M. Hall, the old Nashua & Lowell railroad; Asst. Atty. Gen. Frederick Greenhalge, will look after the state's interests, and G. S. Seifried will appear for the Boston & Maine railway.

Requisition to Sell House
It is not very often that the purchasing agent is called upon to sell a house, but the town department has made requisition upon Purchasing Agent Foss to sell a house on the boulevard. The house is situated near the upper pumping station on the boulevard. It is a cottage house and in good condition.

Municipal Concrete Plant
The commissioner of streets and highways has about made up his mind that a municipal concrete plant would be a good investment for the city. He has made requisition for a supply of tar and pitch and he will do his own sidewalk work instead of having it done by contractors. He has also made requisition for 6000 barrels of cement for street and sewer work. The purchasing agent called for the bids today.

The Governor's Congratulations
The following letter from Governor Foss to Mayor O'Donnell is self explanatory:

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts Executive Chamber, State House, Boston, June 11, 1912.

Dear Mr. Mayor: The Grand Trunk bill was signed yesterday. Let me thank you and through you the members of the board of trade of Lowell for your message.

I now urge upon you, and your association of merchants to co-operate in securing and enforcing a larger measure of state supervision over all our railroad interests.

The benefits to be derived from the Grand Trunk may be lessened if such supervision is not brought about.

A powerful state commission, having larger jurisdiction over transportation matters, is the only possible guarantee the state can have of a satisfactory public service no matter how many railroads there are. With kind regards, Yours very truly, E. W. Foss.

Hon. James E. O'Donnell, Mayor of Lowell, Lowell, Mass.

To Remodel Building
The A. C. Wheelock estate has been granted a permit at the office of the inspector of buildings to remodel the building at 472 Central street. The alterations will be quite extensive and the estimated cost of alterations and additions is $1500.

MORE CONTESTS HEARD BY NATIONAL COMMITTEE

Lawyer Elder Argued for the Taft Forces—Californian and Arizona Case Taken Up

CHICAGO, June 12.—To dispose of the California and Arizona cases set for today and the Louisiana cases next on the list of states, the republican national committee set its meeting for nine o'clock today with the prospect of an all-day and long night session. The California case, in view of the statements made Monday by Former Senator Dick, the Taft contest attorney, promised to bring the title to the whole state delegation into question, owing to an alleged conflict between the California state primary law and the official call of the republican national committee, issued last December at the meeting held in Washington.

The National committee's call specified that the voters of each congressional district should have the privilege of electing two delegates to represent them in the republican national convention. Under the California primary law, although the delegates were elected over the Roosevelt delegates, the secretary of state acted under the state primary law and gave all delegates to Col. Roosevelt because of his large majority in the state.

Later, however, the secretary of state determined that the boundaries between the fourth and fifth districts were not clearly enough defined to make possible an accurate count of the Taft or Roosevelt votes in the fourth district. This change further complicated the case as it was presented to the committee today.

Louisiana Cases
In the Louisiana cases, which the committee expected to reach late today, the regularity of the state organization is directly at issue. Three delegates appear from the state at large, one instructed for Roosevelt and headed by National Committeeman Pearl Wright, and two for Taft, only one of which the national committee recognizes as "regular."

In an attempt to heal the Louisiana split after the last republican national convention of 1908 the national committee directed a sub-committee to go to the state and try to bring the warring factions together. Members of the committee which consisted of E. C. Duncan of North Carolina, Ralph Williams of Oregon, and Secretary William Haywood of New York prepared to go into Louisiana in February. The committee today and today as to the compromise made in the state last February.

It is claimed that the factions were brought together then and signed an agreement under which Victor Lofel became state chairman. The Lofel faction sent the recognized delegation while Pearl Wright, heading the Roosevelt delegation, claims equal regularity for his delegates.

There are two sets of delegates at large from Arizona, one for Taft and the other for Roosevelt, the latter the contesting faction. In the state convention after the Taft men had organized, the Roosevelt followers held a convention in the same hall and elected a delegation. The contestants deny the right of the Taft leaders to fix a temporary roll call.

Just before the committee met it was declared that the claim of the Roosevelt delegates of Louisiana headed by Committeeman Wright would be that the sub-committee of the republican national committee exceeded its authority when it went to Louisiana and consolidated the former warring factions. The Wright delegation was elected under one of the old regular committees. Mr. Wright was prepared to assert before the committee that the national committee's delegation which went to Louisiana in February, went there for the purpose of getting early control and shutting out the possibility of a Roosevelt delegation.

Lawyer Elder Argues
Samuel J. Elder opened the arguments for the Taft forces. He said that as no primary law was in effect when the Arizona state committee called the state convention to be held June 12, doubt existed as to how the delegates should be selected. The state committee decided to leave the selection of delegates to the county committees.

"Only one contest was presented when the state committee met two days before the convention," said Mr. Elder. "It was well known that the committee was ready to hear all contestants. At the convention at Tucson all the contestants received tickets. Chairman Hubbell stated that very one claiming to be a delegate could be heard when some one protested against the reading of a roll call made up by the committee.

"The man who objected to the roll call was a Roosevelt man who was not recognized as a delegate on the temporary roll.

"Then apparently by a preconceived plan, the Roosevelt men rushed for the platform and there was an immediate scene of disorder.

Mr. Elder declared that the Roosevelt forces then left the regular convention which organized "peacefully" with sixty-eight of the ninety-seven votes which had been recognized.

Mr. Morrison declared that on June 3 the convention at Tucson was opened by State Chairman J. C. Hubbell, the temporary roll adopted and nominations called for, when former Governor Joseph H. Kibbe, whose name was not on the temporary roll arose and said:

"We don't recognize the adoption of this roll."

The Roosevelt men, Morrison declared, then rushed to the front and some of them mounted the platform. Morrison said he believed there was a "fully developed football organization" among the Roosevelt men who proceeded to run a convention on one side of the stage, while the Taft convention was going on at the other. For twenty minutes, he said, it was impossible to hear anything. The Roosevelt men then left.

The part played by former Gov. Kibbe was explained by George L. Record, who defended the Roosevelt delegation.

"We claim we had a clear majority of the legal delegates in that hall," he said. "When the convention met Gov. Kibbe took the floor and protested on our behalf against the adoption of a temporary roll which we did not believe legal. From that time on there were two conventions and the question is which is the legal one."

A motion of Senator Borah to seat the Roosevelt delegates from Arizona was defeated and the Taft delegation was seated after a refusal of a roll call.

A roll call also was refused on the motion to seat the Taft delegates, Francis J. Heney, holding the proxy of Thorson of South Dakota, exclaimed, "Why, even the Taft would have granted that request."

"The gentleman is out of order," Chairman Rosewater declared.

"Let him make a speech," said one of the Taft members of the committee.

"I was merely informing the chair," was the answer.

"Thanks," said Rosewater.

The California contest involving two delegates from the fourth district was called and Heney took a place at the table as attorney for the Roosevelt delegates.

Frederick Bryn of Washington opened the case for the Taft delegates. He declared they had received the majority of votes in the fourth district. Under the California primary law, however, the right of district representation had been denied, he said, and the "unit" rule applied to the whole California delegation.

The first contest of the day was that of Arizona's six delegates at large.

For the Taft delegates at large appeared Samuel J. Elder, a Boston attorney and former classmate of President Taft; Robert Morrison, an attorney from Prescott, Ariz., and James T. Williams, Jr., of Tucson, one of the delegates at large.

At the Roosevelt table Ormsby McIlhenny joined George E. Record of New Jersey and Dwight B. Heard of Phoenix, of the Roosevelt delegation.

Just after this case was called the regular program was interrupted by

BOTH SIDES CONFIDENT IN THE BOSTON STRIKE

There is No Sign of Settlement of the Dispute as Yet—

Cars Running Today

BOSTON, June 12.—The struggle between the striking motormen and conductors of the Boston Elevated railway and the company over the question of a recognition of the union and a minimum wage seemed far from settlement today. The company claimed to be operating all its lines on normal schedules.

The strike leaders maintained that only half the service was being given to the public and that on many of the lines cars were seen scarcely more than once an hour. It was also claimed that the cars were inefficiently manned.

The district court judges continued to impose house of correction sentences of from two to six months on those accused of participating in disorders. In Brighton, Sanberg, who was charged with having some knowledge of the dynamite alleged to have been found beside the car tracks, pleaded not guilty and was held in $5000 for the grand jury.

Chief Justice Aiken of the superior court issued an order postponing 47 damage cases against the Boston Elevated railway which have been on the jury trial list in Suffolk and Middlesex counties for several months, until the fall term. The postponement was ordered because of the difficulty in obtaining unbiased juries.

Up to noon there had been no disorder today along the company's lines.

The extra duty imposed upon the police of Boston, Brookline and Newton has compelled the stewards of the Brookline Country club to engage extra officers in New York to guard the grounds during the steeplechase meeting on Saturday and next week. It has never before been necessary to bring police to this state from so great a distance.

The strike leaders announce their willingness to leave all disputed questions to former President Tuttle of the Boston & Maine road.

"We have offered to arbitrate," said J. G. Colgan of the executive board of the union, "but it does not seem to be acceptable at the present time. We now make this additional proposition."

At the home of Mr. Tuttle in Brookline it was stated that the proposition had been submitted to him but that he had declined to be drawn into the strike.

SUIT FOR $15,000 IS ON TRIAL TODAY

Plaintiff Injured in Accident in Bigelow Co.

The case of Sava Zaharia vs. the Bigelow Carpet company, an action of tort in the sum of $15,000, which was started in superior court late yesterday afternoon was resumed before Judge Stevens this morning.

The plaintiff is a young Greek girl who it is claimed came to this city in the fall of 1911 and secured employment in the card room of the Bigelow Carpet company. It is alleged that she was only 15 years of age when she was employed, and was unable to read or write the English language. While operating a carding machine her hair was caught and a portion of her scalp was torn off.

The suit is brought on the grounds that the young girl secured employment without having the proper certificate required before a child between the age of 14 and 16 can work. Fotis Zaharia, a brother of the plaintiff, first brought suit as next of kin to Sava, but he was afterward removed and the name of her counsel, A. S. Howard, was substituted.

The first witness called was Kitta Mubotta, a young Greek girl who was employed in the same room when the accident happened. She testified through an interpreter that she taught Sava how to run the machine. Sava had been working one week when she was hurt. She said she did not tell Sava of the danger of getting her hair caught in the machine because she did not know of it herself. She also testified she had been working in that department about one month when the second hand told her to show Sava Zaharia. The same witness occupied the biggest part of the forenoon in cross examination.

LOWELL LOAN BILL DISCUSSED IN HOUSE

And Disagreement Reported Today

The committee on conference at the house of representatives on the so-called $300,000 loan for Lowell, which is composed of Representatives Jewett, Butler and Aehn, this morning reported a disagreement and the said report was accepted by the house. This may mean that Lowell's demand for permission to borrow under the debt limit is to be refused. Another attempt may be made in the senate to revive the bill or a different one to meet the Lowell demand.

SENATOR ROOT HAS A CONFERENCE WITH PRES. TAFT

WASHINGTON, June 12.—Senator Root of New York, the Taft choice for temporary and permanent chairman of the republican national committee, had a final conference today with the president at the White House.

Some of the details of Senator Root's speech and some of the planks of the platform were said to have been discussed. Senator Root will leave today for Chicago.

MOROCCO WORKERS STRIKE
LYNN, June 12.—A strike of 100 morocco workers was declared today at the factory of the Illinois Leather Co. The strikers are unorganized. Practically all of them are foreigners. They demand an increase of $1 a week. At present they are receiving $9 and $10 a week. About 400 are employed at the factory, the head office of which is in Chicago.

GOLF TOURNAMENT
WEST NEWTON, June 12.—The 10th championship of the Massachusetts Golf association opened today with 70 starters in the 18-hole qualifying round on the links of the Brookline Country club. Up to noon the only player to break 80 was H. H. Wilder of the Country club who turned in 79.

an unexpected protest against the split decision late yesterday in the eleventh Kentucky district cases.

Former Senator Dick, the Taft contest manager, asked for confirmation of the count that one Roosevelt and one Taft delegate had been seated.

"How can we appeal from this decision?" asked Mr. Dick. "I want to protest that the decision was irregular," interrupted Mr. McIlhenny, contest manager for Col. Roosevelt.

Both attorneys made it clear they would carry the 11th Kentucky case higher. Then Col. Roosevelt said the case could be taken to the national convention and its credentials committee.

Senator Dick said he did not want the decision passed without notice of appeal as the Taft forces thought they were entitled to both of the 11th district delegates.

Senator Rosewater demanded that the Arizona case be taken up and the Kentucky decision was stopped.

Chairman Rosewater said there was some doubt as to which delegation should be heard first, but as the Roosevelt delegates filed their credentials first the Taft forces would be considered the contestants.

TAFT DELEGATES SEATED
CHICAGO, June 12.—The six Arizona Taft delegates here were seated by a viva voce vote by the republican national committee. Senator Borah's motion to seat the Roosevelt delegation was defeated after a roll call had been refused.

The committee next took up the contest in the fourth district of California.

800 ASSISTANTS PROVIDED FOR SERGEANT-AT-ARMS STONE

CHICAGO, June 12.—William E. Stone, sergeant-at-arms of the republican national committee will be assisted by 800 men besides having 300 policemen at his call. Mr. Stone declared last night that nothing like a stampede among the spectators, at least, can happen.

Among the assistants will be clergymen, students, lawyers, bankers, physicians, business men and would politicians who are able to wield sufficient influence to gain an appointment. No questions are asked concerning age, politics or social standing. The position is an honorary one and obtained by having sufficient influence with Fred W. Plimpton of the arrangements committee and National Committeeman Lowden of Illinois.

ROOSEVELT MEN WONDERING IF COLONEL WILL GO TO CHICAGO

CHICAGO, June 12.—Positive information as to whether Col. Roosevelt would come to Chicago to look after his own interests before the work of deciding the contested delegations is finished by the republican national committee is sought today both by his own workers and those favoring President Taft.

The success of the Roosevelt workers yesterday in gaining one contested seat gave rise to a report that the former president would come while many of his own workers claimed to have been assured that he would not be here. Other Roosevelt workers declared they were certain that he would be here by Friday night.

On that night a mass-meeting will be held by the Roosevelt followers and many maintained that the candidate would be the principal orator. At this meeting strong protests are promised against the action of the national committee in seating some of the Taft delegates in the contest.

The platform is now receiving much attention from the Taft men. William Barnes, who arrived yesterday said that he would try to obtain favorable action in the resolutions committee on planks based on the Rochester platform. Mr. Barnes distributed several copies of the Rochester platform among the delegates.

WOMAN WANTS $150,000

For Alienation of Husband's Affections

NEW YORK, June 12.—Miss Lillian Keller, an attractive woman, who has lived in an apartment at No. 111 West Eleventh street for several years with James C. Kuhn, a manufacturing confectioner, has been made defendant, together with Mr. Kuhn, in a $150,000 suit brought by Mrs. Clara B. Kuhn, Kuhn's wife.

Mrs. Kuhn lives in Detroit. In her complaint she claims Miss Keller illegally obtained possession of two factories and the land on which they stand, from her husband, and she asks that both Miss Keller and Kuhn be enjoined from disposing of them.

The factories are located at No. 7 Carmine street and Nos. 15-17 Clark street. Kuhn bought the former property in March, 1904. Almost immediately thereafter, Mrs. Kuhn says, he conveyed it to Miss Keller. The Clark street property was bought a year ago, and was also conveyed to Miss Keller, Mrs. Kuhn alleges.

Mrs. Kuhn charges Miss Keller holds the property in trust for Kuhn, in order to defraud Mrs. Kuhn of her dower rights.

Mrs. Kuhn is represented here by Rosenthal & Heermann, No. 100 West street. Mr. Rosenthal declared yesterday that he had prepared papers in an alienation suit, in which Mrs. Kuhn charges that "Lillian Keller deprived her of her husband's protection, society, aid and support, did wilfully, wickedly and maliciously gain his affections, and induced and enticed him to leave the New York city."

Mrs. Kuhn values her husband's affections at $150,000 and sues for that amount.

MRS. "TOM" PIERCE WAS ARRESTED

For Raising Up a Disturbance

NEW YORK, June 12.—Katherine Pierce, known in other days as Mrs. "Tom" Pierce, the dashing wife of a Boston milliner, intrepid horse-woman, leader in the "society" element of Boston society and daring original of "stunts" for the enjoyment of the gay set at Newport and New York, appeared in the Yorkville court yesterday to answer to a charge of disorderly conduct.

She had created a disturbance in Maxim's, so the manager of that resort declared; had kicked through the window of a taxi; it was also asserted, and had used language more picturesque than elegant.

When the former society leader and rider to hounds appeared before the bar of Magistrate Corrigan's court her white sailor hat was battered in the crown and set askew on her head, her rather mannish cheek suit was splattered with dirt and there was in her eyes a fired, troubled look.

Mrs. Pierce had come to the cafe late, the complaining witness declared, in the company of a man and a woman and she immediately began to create disorder. When protests were made, she swore roundly at the head waiter, and the manager himself, he said, threatening to kick things over and create chaos if she were not let alone. Finally, after much persuasion, she was induced to get into a taxi, but the instant the door was closed Mrs. Pierce had rebelled, so Mr. Carroll swore, and had kicked through the window, yelling to be let out. Carroll called a policeman at that juncture and had her arrested.

Mrs. Pierce was accompanied by two women when she appeared in court, and during the recital of the complaint against her she drew from her reticule a large roll of bills and began to count them, evidently anticipating a fine. When Carroll told the magistrate that he wanted Mrs. Pierce put under bonds not to come to his place again, Corrigan looked sharply at the thin face and dark circled eyes of the prisoner and said:

"You hear what this man says. Shall I put you under bond to leave his place alone or will you make a promise not to go there again?"

"I promise," Mrs. Pierce said, and she was discharged.

FINGER PRINTS

MAY LEAD TO DETECTION OF MURDERER OF MOORE FAMILY

VILLESCA, Ia., June 12.—M. W. McClaughry, Bertillon expert of the federal prison at Leavenworth, Kan., who was called here to make records of the bloody finger prints left by the murderer of the Moore family and their guests last Sunday night, is in Omaha today in consultation with Chief of Police Donahue.

McClaughry is convinced that some one familiar with the Moore family and house committed the murder. He takes little stock in the theories which attempt to link the tragedy with similar crimes in Kansas and Colorado. So far as the public is aware not a single clue has been found to the identity of the murderer.

NEW YORK, June 12.—About a thousand women of the lowest East Side turned out at two mass meetings last night to protest against the high prices of meat. The demonstrations were organized by the Anti High Price Meat Association, which has been carrying on an active warfare in Brooklyn. And if last night's demonstrations are to be taken as an indication of the preparedness of the women of Manhattan to push the war against high prices, the Brooklyn agitators have every expectation of realizing their purpose. The meetings last night—one at Terrace Hall, No. 226 East Broadway, and the other at Jefferson Hall, No. 90 Columbia street—were attended almost wholly by women. There were a few men present, but women realize that it is really they who are the ones who suffer from the high prices, and they have been quick to take advantage of this opportunity to make their burden lighter. Most of the women were mothers of families, and East Side families usually are large. So the high prices of meat in that vicinity are an especially hard burden. The constantly growing strike presents the unique spectacle of the butchers siding with the women in their warfare. It is their contention that the men above them are getting all the profits, and they see in the movement for lower prices an opportunity to better their own condition. Yesterday a number of East Side outchers closed up shop in sympathy with the strikers, and about seventy-five more have agreed to do so today. This decision was arrived at last Saturday, when a meeting was held to ascertain the attitude of the meat sellers.

35TH ANNIVERSARY OBSERVED MAN NEAR DEATH WITH BROKEN NECK

Members of St. Patrick's Holy Name Society Held Banquet

The 35th anniversary of St. Patrick's Holy Name society was observed last evening at the St. Patrick's school hall by a reunion and banquet at which over two hundred members and friends were present. The affair proved a grand success in every particular and was greatly enjoyed by all.

The members and guests assembled in the upper rooms of the building at 7:30 o'clock and then marched to the hall to the music of an inspiring march, played by Michael J. Johnson, organist of the church. When all had been seated around the festive board, Right Rev. William O'Brien, P. R. gave the invocation and then a fine dinner was enjoyed.

After the dinner had been well taken care of, President James O'Sullivan, who acted as toastmaster, in his usual entertaining manner, called to order and after congratulating the members for the excellent attendance and reviewing the grand work done by the society he paid a high tribute to Mr. O'Brien and also Rev. Fr. Curtin, the spiritual director of the society. Pres. O'Sullivan first called on Mr. O'Brien, whose address was more or less reminiscent of the earlier days and extremely hopeful of the days to come. He pointed out what the future holds for the young people just taking their first active part in the interests of the church. Hon. James E. O'Donnell spoke on present municipal conditions, outlining some of the problems facing this year's city government. Brother Osmund spoke of "The Boy of the Present Day," Rev. Fr. Curtin, the final speaker, gave a stirring address on the future of the Holy Name society.

All the speakers were well received and listened to with close attention. During the evening, an excellent musical program was carried out. Several pleasing piano selections were given by William P. McCarthy; violin selection by James Rourke; songs by James P. Shugrue and John J. Neeson and "Auld Lang Syne" by the assembly. Michael J. Johnson was the accompanist of the evening, assisted by W. P. McCarthy.

He Was Injured in Auto Accident

PHILADELPHIA, June 12.—Clayton Gilbert Dixon is in a serious condition from a broken neck and internal injuries at his magnificent home at Wallingford, where he is being nursed by his beautiful wife, who, prior to her marriage, Miss Estelle Willoughby, sister of Hugh L. Willoughby, of Philadelphia, Atlantic City and Palm Beach, the enthusiastic aviator and motorist.

Although Mrs. Dixon and Dr. Charles Schott, who is in charge of the case, both declared they have every reason to believe that he will survive his injuries and will take the same prominence on the golf links as he has heretofore, close friends seem to be in doubt.

The accident became known only yesterday, when friends inquired as to why the name of Mr. Dixon did not appear in the lists of the numerous golf tournaments now being held in this vicinity.

One night three weeks ago Mr. Dixon was returning to his home in his automobile and had turned from the roadway into his private road, which not only is steep and narrow, but has a sharp curve. In attempting to negotiate the turn while taking the hill at top speed Mr. Dixon lost control of the car. He was thrown head foremost from the machine and his head struck a tree. He was rendered unconscious.

News of the accident was kept even from Mr. Dixon's closest friends so that he might get rest and quiet and have a better chance for recovery.

NAT'L CONFERENCE OF CHARITIES AND CORRECTIONS AT CLEVELAND, O.

CLEVELAND, O., June 12.—The national conference of charities and corrections will be opened here tonight when James H. Garfield of Cleveland will call the delegates to order and Mayor Newton D. Baker and Governor Judson Harmon will deliver addresses of welcome. Judge Julian Mack of the commerce court, president of the conference, will then deliver his annual address.

Various subsidiaries to the conference were busy today. The Federated Boys' Clubs, the National Conference of Jewish Charities, and the National Conference on the Education of Truants, Backward and Delinquent Children met in final session. The National Federation of Settlements and the National Association of Public Relief Officials held meetings. The National Association continued its work.

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES.—CAMBRIDGE, June 12.—Commencement exercises were held at the Episcopal Theological school here today. Degrees were conferred upon the seven graduates by William H. Lincoln, president of the board of trustees of the school. The baccalaureate sermon was delivered by Bishop James Dwyer Perry of Providence. The students, faculty and alumni were addressed by Bishop William Lawrence of Massachusetts.

One of the Temple Players at the Merrimack Square Theatre

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE

The Temple Players, presenting their novel musical offering, "In Japan," are sure of scoring one of their biggest hits during the present week's series. The presentation is entirely new and given with a cleverness that has characterized their work since their coming to Lowell seven weeks ago.

The photo-plays for the first three days of the week are again among the latest and best products of the big manufacturers of picture films in this and foreign countries. The views of present day events are added attractions. The pictures for the last three days of the week will be of the same quality which has made them such an enjoyable feature at all past performances.

Remember that this theatre is the original "coolest spot in town." You'll find it cool and comfortable here at all times. If you wish to be convinced call around some warm afternoon and find how surprisingly cool it is inside the theatre.

KEITH'S LOWELL THEATRE

For a real musical novelty Prof. Spica and his band are one of the real attractions of the season. Ordinarily they would be referred to as Prof. Spica's band, but in this case Prof. Spica and his band is proper, for the professor is an attraction in himself. If every little movement never had a meaning of its own before it certainly has one when Prof. Spica moves it, for the professor has more moves than Arthur McCullough, Lowell's champion checker player. He leads his band on to harmonious victory over discordant silence twice daily, and no battle-scarred general ever fought any harder than does the professor. He is built like a chrysanthemum and is every bit as attractive. His band consists of 15 picked musicians from Vienna, the home of music, and what they can't play isn't worth playing. The Sherry Girls are three stunning young sisters, and that's no press agent's prevarication. They are good singers and their costumes are a delight to the feminine eye and not at all bad from a masculine standpoint. The three Esmeraldas present a classy trapeze act consisting of aerial acrobatics of a sensational order. Jerome and Lewis are the cleverest colored couple, fast colors, seen here this season. They sing, dance and swap talk. Harry Booker and company present the pleasing Irish satire, "The Walking Delegate." Then there are five reels of new motion pictures. "The Bill" comes again tomorrow with Spica and his band still on deck. Polly Holmes and company, the Flying Russells, give big vaudeville acts and five reels of pictures.

THE KASINO

Just at this time of the year, with nature in full bloom, the South common presents a picture most alluring. It is the great breathing and beauty spot of the city. It is more than that—it is the town of The Kasino, Lowell's newest, liveliest amusement resort, built on the Thorndike street hill, just to the northwest of the common. Here, close to nature, one may dance to the most tuneful two steps, the dreamiest waltzes, and the most captivating schottisches, with the big Kasino orchestra playing. Dancing sessions are held afternoon and evening.

LONDON, June 12.—A special meeting of debenture holders and shareholders of the Quebec Central R. R. Co. today unanimously ratified the leasing of the railroad for 99 years to the Canadian Pacific R. R. Co.

TOOK "EASIEST WAY"

WOMAN KILLED HERSELF AND HER SON

NEW YORK, June 12.—"I find this the easiest way, owing to the cruel and abusive treatment of my husband."

This note lying on a table in the home of Mrs. Susan L. Donahue, at No. 23 Emerson place, Newark, yesterday morning, apparently explained why Mrs. Donahue had killed her two-year-old son, Thomas, and herself. They had died from gas asphyxiation.

Benjamin Donahue, husband and father of the dead woman and child, found the note sticking from under the edge of a table cloth.

Donahue, when questioned concerning the contents of the note, said the alleged cruelty and abuses were only imaginary. He said they had never had a serious quarrel since their marriage five years ago. He claimed he got his two weeks' pay on Monday and gave her $29 of it, retaining only 10 cents for himself.

Former Member of Co. K. is Honored by Co. G.

The members of Co. G, Sixth regiment, M. V. M., held a special meeting last night for the purpose of electing a second lieutenant to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Lieut. Barnes and the choice fell on Private Schuyler R. Waller, a former sergeant in Co. K.

Lieut. Waller graduated a number of years ago from the Lowell high school, where he was at that time captain of Co. C of the school regiment. Later he attended Tufts medical and dental college and graduated from there with honors. He first became a member of Co. K in 1908 and remained there until last Thursday when he re-enlisted and was mustered into Co. G. His military record shows that Lieut. Waller has always been a faithful and efficient soldier and a marksman of rare ability, and his election to the position of lieutenant of Co. G was an excellent choice.

Last night's meeting was presided over by Major Sweetser and it was largely attended. Lieutenant Waller had no opposition despite the fact that he has been in the company not quite a week. He will go before the examining board for officers in Boston today, submitting to a written test and a physical examination.

ALL FOR CHICAGO N. E. DELEGATES

Will Go by Special Train Saturday Afternoon

BOSTON, June 12.—The main body of New England delegates to the republican national convention will start for Chicago on Saturday afternoon. The Massachusetts delegation, despite the fact that it was evenly divided between Taft and Roosevelt, will forget its differences on the trip out, which will be made on a special eight car train under the management of Chase Halfield, chairman of the state committee. The Massachusetts quarters will be on the eighth floor of the auditorium as in 1908.

It is expected that the Taft and Roosevelt forces representing Massachusetts will compromise on the selection of the state representatives on the different committees.

ASSETS ARE $100 AND THE LIABILITIES AMOUNT TO $33,138

NEW YORK, June 12.—A voluntary petition in bankruptcy was filed in the Brooklyn federal court yesterday by Irving Simon, who said he was a lawyer living at No. 150 Fifth avenue, Brooklyn. His liabilities were put at $33,138.25, of which $11,587.72 are secured claims. His assets amounted to $100.

Most of his creditors were secured through mortgages given on Manhattan properties. Those to whom he owed the largest sums were Greenwood cemetery, $70,000; Lawyers' Mortgage Smith estate, $40,000; James Henry Smith estate, $40,000; Philip Phoenix, $40,000; The S. Gurnee estate, $35,000; Equitable Trust Co., $550. Cor. Ex. $4,536.72; Jefferson bank, 122 Bowers, $4,750; Harry L. Goldin, guardian for Celia and Wolf Goldin and Fannie L. Goldberg, $10,000, and Max Levine, $14,887.72.

The house cited by Simon as his residence is near Flatbush avenue. At this address, it was said, he was only a boarder. He is said to have lived on the second floor of the building, which is a tenement, over a clothing store.

Phillips Phoenix, a lawyer, who lives at No. 3 East Sixty-sixth street, declared last night that he knew nothing whatever about the Simon bankruptcy, and was not a creditor in any such proceedings.

George Colon, of George Colon & Co., builders in Harlem, said last night at his home, No. 90 Trinity avenue, Bronx, that he was also ignorant of the matter. He said that Irving Simon was his attorney, but he understood Mr. Simon's office was at No. 27 Broadway and his home at No. 23 West One Hundred and Twentieth street.

ASSAULT CHARGED

LAWYER WAS HELD IN $300 BONDS

NEW YORK, June 12.—Theodore Hackett Ward, a wealthy practicing attorney-at-law and former assistant district attorney under William Travers Jerome, was held for trial in $300 bonds yesterday on a charge of assault.

He is charged with slapping the face of Henry A. Helser, an assistant United States attorney, in the presence of Magistrate O'Connor, thereby upsetting the dignity of the court and throwing the spectators into an uproar.

The charge grew out of a case in which Mr. Ward and Mr. Helser were the opposing counsel. The matter at issue was the ownership of a dog.

VOLCANO ASHES STILL IN THE AIR

Many Persons Painfully Burned in Eyes

CORVOVA, Alaska, June 12.—Although six days have passed since the Katman volcano burst forth in eruption there has been little relief here from the volcano smoke and ashes which hung low over the mountains. The first real danger here from the volcanic action was made apparent last night when a heavy rain began to fall, the water mixing with the ashes in the air forming sulphuric acid which burned painfully whenever it came in contact with anyone's face or hands. Before the cause was realized many persons received painful burns in the eyes although no one was seriously injured. Analysis of the drinking water showed that it contained sulphuric acid and physicians directed householders to use lime water as a counter-irritant.

All local vessels available have been placed at the command of Captain Perry of the revenue cutter Manning and efforts are being made to get the war department to order the transport Sheridan, which is enroute to Alaska from Seattle with the thirtieth infantry and a detachment of signal corps men, to proceed direct to the volcanic district of Kodiak to render assistance. The steamer Alameda is also expected here soon and the Alaskan Steamship company will be asked to send her to the stricken district.

At a mass meeting of citizens last night a Corvo-Kodiak relief committee was organized. Cablegrams were sent to President Taft, president of the American Red Cross and to Governor Clark urging them to take immediate steps for the relief of the volcano sufferers.

BOY, KILLED

HE WAS DRAGGED UNDER CAR A DISTANCE OF 170 FEET

WORCESTER, June 12.—Dragged under the forward truck a distance of 170 feet before the car brakes would work, Lawrence Beeching, 9, son of Peter Beeching of Tacknagat st., Auburn, near Worcester, was almost instantly killed by a heavy Worcester Consolidated street railway car shortly after noon yesterday.

MARRIED AT LAST

COUPLE FELL IN LOVE FOR SECOND TIME

SOUTH NORWALK, Conn., June 12.—When Kenneth M. Pitts, a Cleveland salesman, was doing his town a week ago he fell in love at sight with Miss Isabel Pettit, a pretty dressmaker.

Then Pitts secured an introduction and won Miss Pettit. They then discovered that they had been playmates in New York city when young and had become engaged at 15, but Mr. Pitts was called away by the Spanish-American war and never saw his childhood's sweetheart again until he unknowingly ran upon her last week in the place. Fourteen years had brought many changes, and neither recognized the other, but love had proven more lasting than the other senses and was re-kindled on sight.

Mr. Pitts and Miss Pettit were quietly married yesterday afternoon by Justice Joseph J. Lincolner. Miss Carrie Reed and C. C. Heggman accompanied them.

CHAIRMAN MACK

ARRIVES IN BALTIMORE FOR DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION

BALTIMORE, Me., June 11.—With the coming today of Chairman Mack and Secretary Woodson of the democratic national committee the pre-convention machinery was expected to move in a lively manner and from now until the candidates are named by the national convention Baltimore expects to share with Chicago in political prominence. Over 15,000 applications have been made for positions as assistant sergeants at arms, doorkeepers, pages and ushers, but each national committeeman will suggest the names of those he desires appointed.

Chairman Mack and Secretary Woodson, after an inspection of the convention hall, will conclude many minor details of the convention program which the committee on arrangements will ratify when it meets here June 20 to choose the temporary officers of the convention.

ARMY APPROPRIATION BILL

WASHINGTON, June 12.—The senate today, by 23 to 28, refused to reconsider its adoption of the conference report on the army appropriation bill, carrying amendments which would legislate Major-General Wood out of his office as chief of staff of the army.

HE WANTED TO DIE LITTLE SHOT HIMSELF

He Was Afraid of Being Stricken Blind

MELROSE, June 12.—Fearing that blindness was slowly overtaking him, Abdon J. Little, aged 35, who for 35 years had been employed as an engineer by the Boston & Maine railroad, begged that he be allowed to take his own life after he had made two unsuccessful attempts to shoot himself at Pine Banks Park in this city yesterday.

He sent two shots from a 32-caliber revolver close to his heart. The shots were heard by James Dunham, a chauffeur, who ran into the park and wrested the weapon from the aged engineer. "Give me back the gun; I want to finish the job," pleaded Little, too faint from loss of blood to offer much resistance. When Chief of Police Kerr arrived in the park he again pleaded that he be allowed to take his own life. He was rushed to the Melrose hospital, where he is on the dangerous list.

For 35 years Little had run a shifting locomotive for the Boston & Maine railroad, the greater part of the time in the Fitchburg division yards. A fortnight ago he resigned his position, after telling his friends that he was having serious trouble with his eyesight.

For nine years he had roomed at the home of Mrs. Patrick Judge at 202 Main street, Charlestown, where he was highly regarded. He was described as an efficient engineer, having modest tastes and good habits.

WALLER ELECTED LIEUTENANT

Former Member of Co. K. is Honored by Co. G.

The members of Co. G, Sixth regiment, M. V. M., held a special meeting last night for the purpose of electing a second lieutenant to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Lieut. Barnes and the choice fell on Private Schuyler R. Waller, a former sergeant in Co. K.

Lieut. Waller graduated a number of years ago from the Lowell high school, where he was at that time captain of Co. C of the school regiment. I. W. W. LEADERS DENOUNCED BY THE GREEK VICE-CONSUL

He Says That Fellow Countrymen Were Coerced Into Striking

CLINTON, June 12.—The I. W. W. leaders who are directing the strike at the Lancaster mill were yesterday scathingly denounced by Diametrius Giamouranis, Greek vice-consul from Boston, who, in a conference with Chairman Cleveland Morse of the board of selectmen, declared that his countrymen had been induced to join the strikers against their will.

He maintained, however, that the strikers were right in regard to the prosecution of certain Clinton police officers, and after other conferences with Sheriff Charles C. Sanderson and Chief of Police Gibson left for Boston, declaring that he would return and arrange for their prosecution upon charges of assault with intent to kill.

The picketing yesterday was very orderly and soon after work began the strikers paraded to O'Donnell's field, where a mass meeting was held. Denis Callahan addressed the gathering and reported that $100 had been added to the relief fund.

In court Annie Hoffman was fined $20 for intimidation and sentence was suspended until July 11. James Daughan, a second hand in the carding room of the mill was the complainant.

HORSE WAS SHOT

A VALUABLE ANIMAL INJURED BY A FALL

A valuable horse, owned by John J. Dunn, was shot by Agent Richardson of the humane society at the corner of Shattuck and Merrimack streets shortly after 9 o'clock this morning. The horse was attached to a light buggy and was driven by Mr. J. Kenney, who is a brother-in-law of Mr. Dunn. Just as the driver pulled the rein for the horse to turn into Shattuck street from Merrimack the animal slipped and fell. Officer David Petrie was on the scene and immediately telephoned for Agent Richardson. In the meantime the driver notified the owner, Messrs. Richardson and Dunn arrived, and the former said that the left hind leg was broken. He later called Dr. Eaton, who upon examination found that the leg was badly broken and advised that the horse be shot. Mr. Richardson conferred with the owner, who agreed to have the injured horse relieved from its sufferings, and the agent fired one shot into the horse's temple and ended the agony.

CITIZENS OF BALTIMORE PREPARE FOR CONVENTION

There Will be 100,000 Visitors
During the Democratic Convention

BALTIMORE, June 12.—The same energy that the citizens of Baltimore displayed in going after the democratic national convention is evident in the preparations that have been made here for the comfort and entertainment of the convention guests and the convenience of the political leaders and delegates who will name the party's next candidate for president. As soon as Baltimore was chosen for the convention city, the Maryland legislature authorized the city to expend $55,000 in repairing and relighting and decorating streets and buildings. This was exclusive of the $35,000 appropriated for remodeling the Fifth Regiment armory, where the delegates will assemble.

The committee that went to Washington to lay the advantages of Baltimore before the democratic national committee was composed largely of bankers and business men. One of their first arguments was the presentation of a certified check for $100,000 as a guarantee that Baltimore would do all that it promised. The committee agreed to furnish one of the best convention halls in the country, to remodel it as the national committee saw fit and to do everything in its power to oil the intricate mechanism

Baltimore is proud of her transportation facilities both by rail and by water. Three railroads, the Pennsylvania, the Baltimore & Ohio and the Western Maryland, connect the city with the north, south and west, and 60 steamship lines give it a prominent position in the trans-oceanic and coastwise trade and passenger service.

Judging from the number of hotel and boarding house reservations and from past conventions, the addition to Baltimore's population during the week of June 25 will be not less than 40,000.

This estimate is the minimum here. The more enthusiastic are coming on nearly 100,000 convention guests. The special committee which investigated the city's hotel and boarding house facilities and rates has reported that all strangers can be taken care of, and visitors who are unable to find accommodations are asked to communicate with the general convention committee.

The hotel committee found that practically all the space in the larger hostelry was already occupied by delegates and alternates and others actively engaged in the convention. This committee, however, has prepared a list of boarding houses and private residences where one may find accommodations on almost any scale desired.

The committee made a searching inquiry into convention hotel rates and the report was to the effect that these rates were by no means exorbitant and amply justified. To meet the increased demand the hotels have been obliged practically to double their forces of employees for the convention week and, in order to get them trained, put them at work a week before the convention opens. In addition, the hotel managers have nearly duplicated their equipment of linen and tableware.

The general municipal convention committee, appointed by the mayor, is subdivided into state committees, to which the delegates and visitors from the respective states may turn for information and assistance.

The problem of handling a great convention crowd was two-fold—first, to bring them to Baltimore; second, to house, feed and entertain them while here. The first of these was simple.

HALL & LYON CO

67-69 MERRIMACK ST.

To supplement this display by the city the proprietors and tenants of all the light buildings have been asked to leave the lights burning in upper rooms so that the business district at night will be ablaze.

The park department, which has charge of the plant and flower decorations, has done much to beautify the exterior of the convention hall by screening the temporary doorways and stairways leading from the street to the balconies with trees and shrubs. Among the trees transplanted for this purpose are elms and oaks, some of them 40 feet tall. Baltimoreans are fond of floral displays, and appeals have been made to shopkeepers and occupants of private houses to decorate their windows with flower boxes.

To Baltimoreans the convention itself will be the whole show, but thousands of visitors that come here from all parts of the country will find plenty to occupy their attention when they grow weary of watching democratic celebrities and listening to oratory. One of the most popular trips of the week promises to be down the Patapsco river, which forms the city's fine harbor, and out into Chesapeake bay. For the accommodation of delegates and visitors who wish to take this excursion the city has refitted the steamers Annapolis and Larchmont, which are scheduled to leave for the harbor clear of ice. Annapolis, the site of the United States Naval Academy, is only half an hour's ride by trolley. Washington, the national capital, is less than an hour away.

WEATHER BUREAU

FIRST STEPS FOR ESTABLISHMENT OF A NATIONAL ONE

LONDON, June 12.—The first formal step in the campaign for the establishment of an international weather and storm bureau has been taken here by Prof. Willis Moore, chief of the United States weather bureau.

In speaking of his plan, Professor Moore said: "If the plan is adopted, so far as storms are concerned, the crossing of the Atlantic will be made as safe as a short street car journey. Great ocean liners, which have but little to fear from anything except the most destructive gale, may, by altering their course on receipt of warning by 50 miles or more, escape a rough passage, while the smaller steamers and sailing ships by making a wide detour may escape possible destruction."

Prof. Moore outlined the plan at a luncheon given him by Dr. William Shaw, head of the British weather service and the scientific staff of the London meteorological station. Professor Moore has carried the fight for the adoption of the plan into the international radio congress now in session here and all of the American delegates are under instructions to assist him in securing the co-operation of the other nations in the matter.

WILL GET A FORTUNE

Lawrence Man to Receive $200,000

LAWRENCE, June 12.—John S. Porter, owner of a livery stable on Lawrence street, this city, received word yesterday that he was one of the heirs of the late William K. Porter, the millionaire real estate owner of Boston, whose death occurred in Boston several days ago. It is reported that the Lawrence man who was a nephew of the deceased will receive $200,000. He lives at 33 Avon street and has a wife and one son and one daughter. Heretofore he has simply been in comfortable circumstances. Other local relatives who will eventually benefit by the will are George Wilson, engineer at the Washington mills; David Wilson, engineer at the Wood mills; and Allen Wilson of Fitchburg, N. H.

CATSUP SEIZED

AND FEDERAL AUTHORITIES ARE IN A QUANDARY

BUFFALO, N. Y., June 12.—A problem that is puzzling the federal authorities is how to destroy the contents of 15,000 bottles of tomato catsup without breaking the bottles. That number of bottles was seized recently and ordered destroyed by Judge Hazel in the United States district court. The order said nothing about destroying the bottles and it is said that if this is done the firm may sue the government for the value of the bottles. Judge Hazel will be asked for a further ruling.

WORK IS MAPPED OUT FOR DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION

Preliminary Matters Will be Arranged by the National Committee

BALTIMORE, June 12.—Only part of the work accomplished by the democratic national convention, which opens here on June 25th, will be performed in the convention hall. The results will appear there, but before these results are attained fights will burn far into the night at various hotels and office buildings throughout the city, where convention headquarters have been established by the national organization and the organizations supporting the candidates for places on the national ticket.

A political convention is a law unto itself. Without leaders and committees to plan their work the great body of delegates could make little headway, but even the most astute leader cannot always know when the delegates will upset carefully prepared routine. Nevertheless, until the delegates ballot and one of the candidates receives the two-thirds vote necessary for nomination, those who are trying to turn in advance what the result will be will watch these headquarters.

A national convention has been likened to a great engine in which the fly wheel is the national committee, the governors the committees on credentials and resolutions and the fuel is the body of delegates which supply the motive power, controlled and regulated by these three committees.

The actual work of the convention started here when members of the national committee began to arrive. This committee consists of 82 members, one from each state and from Alaska, District of Columbia, Hawaii and Porto Rico. Its quarters are at the Hotel Belvedere, situated in the Mt. Royal district within walking distance of the convention hall. The two top floors of the Belvedere have been engaged by the committee, including 65 bed-rooms, many with sitting rooms attached. In addition, the committee has taken the hotel banquet hall for its sessions. In this room the committee goes over the papers filed by the contesting delegates and prepares the temporary roll of the convention. This roll will be used when the convention is first called to order. After the committee on credentials is appointed those who are dissatisfied with ruling of the National Committee will take their claims before the new committee.

The committee on credentials and the resolutions committee which drafts the platform, as yet have no regular meeting place. Some of their work may be done at the Belvedere in rooms allotted them by the national committee, and some in the rooms assigned to them at the convention hall.

Next to the rooms engaged by the national committee, the largest reservation at the Belvedere has been made by Thomas Taggart, national committeeman from Indiana. For the members of his committee and his friends Mr. Taggart has taken 50 rooms in the main buildings, with accommodations for 65 persons more in the annex and the "Blue Parlor" on the second floor as state delegation headquarters. Other national committeemen in whose name large reservations have been made at the Belvedere are: Roger C. Sullivan, Illinois; Homer S. Cummings, Connecticut; J. B. Kremer, Montana; A. J. Day, Alaska; Alvan Adams, Colorado; Edwin O. Wood, Michigan; Clark Howell, Georgia; J. M. Guffey, Pennsylvania; Willard Salsbury, Delaware; Urey Wilson, of Kentucky, secretary of the national committee, and Herman Ridder, of New York, its treasurer, also have their quarters here.

Representatives of the candidates for the presidential nomination will be early on the ground, and all of them engaged their headquarters months ago. Several of them have taken suites of offices in the downtown business section, as well as large blocks of rooms in the principal hotels. The Clark campaign committee has offices in the Munsey building, corner Calvert and Fayette streets. Gov. Harman of Pennsylvania has a suite in the Equitable building, across the street, and the Wilson committee has leased an entire small building at No. 10 East Lexington street.

The Underwood forces are the only ones that expect to have a whole hotel to themselves. They have reserved all the rooms and parlors in the Underwood House, one of the older hostelrys at the corner of Eutaw and Baltimore streets. This hotel was badly damaged by fire a few weeks ago, but it is expected that repairs will be finished before the convention opens.

The hotel headquarters of the Wilson, Harman and Clark workers are in the Emerson, at the corner of Calvert and Charles streets, in the heart of the business district and only half a block from the Munsey and Equitable buildings. The Wilson committee has the banquet hall and parlor on the mezzanine floor and 14 bed rooms. The Harman men have 15 sleeping-rooms and a parlor on the mezzanine floor for their meetings.

Two of the notable figures in Baltimore during the convention will be William J. Bryan and Alton B. Parker, the former three and the latter once the choice of a democratic presidential convention. Col. Bryan comes as a delegate from Nebraska and Judge Parker as a delegate from New York. The Nebraskaan and his brother have a suite at the Belvedere adjoining the rooms of the national committee, and the Nebraska delegation also has quarters in the same hotel. Judge Parker will stay at the Emerson, where the New York state delegation will make its headquarters, although not all the delegates from that state have been able to obtain accommodations there.

Tammany hall has taken 25 rooms at the Emerson, having abandoned the plan of coming to Baltimore on a big steamer and using the craft as a hotel during the convention. Other celebrities from the empire state who have suites at this hotel are Gov. Dix, U. S. Senator O'Grady and Charles A. Murphy. The Tammany hall leader, Col. George Harvey also has announced his intention of staying there. The rooms of the New York leaders are expected to become one of the important skirmish grounds of convention week, since this state sends the largest delegation and its representatives come untrained. Until developments in the convention hall itself are conclusive the deliberations of the New York leaders and conferences at the headquarters of Mr. Bryan are expected to attract the greatest attention.

The most unique—and if the weather is very warm the most comfortable—quarters in Baltimore have been engaged by William R. Hearst. For the use of himself and his friends the New York editor has taken the big roof garden on the Hotel Emerson.

Other state delegations that already have established quarters are located as follows: Hotel Belmont—Rhode Island, Iowa, Mississippi, Virginia, part of West Virginia.

Hotel Emerson—Minnesota, Vermont, North Carolina, Kentucky, Missouri, part of West Virginia.

The handling of the convention arrangements, separate from the purely political end, is in the hands of a large number of local committees, which have their quarters on the first floor of the Equitable building. Here a large suite of offices filled with employees will be devoted to the work of making the convention visitors comfortable and at home.

More Dollars For Jingles

In June, 1912, 50 persons will make $20.00 each writing short, snappy Post Toasties Jingles most acceptable for a "Toasties" Jingle Book.

This offer for June, 1912, is entirely separate from, and in addition to, the Jingles purchased by us in May, 1912.

Read instructions below, then see how good a Post Toasties Jingle you can write. It's pleasant amusement for Girls and Boys and older folks.

A COMPLETE JINGLE

(As an example only.)

Early morning breakfast, and 'tis to relate,
Servant over-slept today, getting awful late,
Father growing nervous wants a bite to eat,
Calls for his Post Toasties, goodness, that's a treat.

Sign here—Name.....

Address and mail your Jingles to

Jingle Dept. 465, POSTUM CEREAL CO., LTD., BATTLE CREEK, MICH.

FINISH THIS JINGLE

Old Mother Hubbard's family, a happy bunch were they,
Of healthy little kiddies playing all the day,
History hasn't told us, but to me, 't would seem,

(Fill in this line, mentioning Toasties and write plainly.)

USE OF ABOVE FORM OF ANSWER IS SUGGESTED, BUT NOT REQUIRED.

We will buy 50 Post Toasties Jingles, acceptable for use in a Jingle Book, received during June, 1912, at $20.00 each.

Only the Jingles we pay for will be used, but no Jingles, whether purchased or not, will be returned.

The names and addresses of the writers of the 50 Jingles purchased in June, 1912, will be printed and mailed to each enquirer who sends us a 1c stamped and addressed envelope for return.

The Jingles will be judged honestly upon merit, so if you are a sensitive person and not a good sportsman don't try, for we have no time to "pet up" those whose Jingles are not accepted.

Fill in the missing line of the incomplete Jingle printed above, making the last line include the name "Toasties," with correct rhyme and metre.

Or, write an original Post Toasties Jingle of not less than 4 lines, any one line of which must contain "Post Toasties" or "Toasties."

As many Jingles may be submitted as desired.

No Jingle submitted in May, 1912, will be considered in this June, 1912, offer.

One can make his a pleasant form of entertainment, may make some extra money, and in addition become acquainted with

REBELS DEFEATED BY FEDERAL TROOPS

The Government Forces Used Artillery

SANTIAGO, Cuba, June 12.—A detachment of government troops under Major Rosendo Collazo fought a battle with the insurgents near El Cobre, 10 miles to the west of this city, today. The rebels were defeated, losing 10 killed.

The government troops made effective use of their artillery and are now pursuing the fleeing insurgents.

ADMIRAL EVERETT WAS BURIED AT NEWPORT, R. I., TODAY

NEWPORT, R. I., June 12.—The funeral of Rear Admiral William Everett, U. S. N., retired, was held here today with full naval honors. After brief services at the admiral's home on Kay street, the body was escorted to Channing Memorial church by a regiment of apprentices from the naval training station. Rear Admiral French E. Chadwick headed the list of naval and military officers serving as pallbearers. Rev. William Jones conducted the services.

All flags at the naval stations and on the warships in the harbor were at half mast during the funeral and a salute of 13 minute guns was fired from the training ship Reina Mercedes. After the church services, the body was escorted to the railway station for transportation to Washington. Burial will be at Arlington cemetery tomorrow.

WIDOW'S ORPHANS TO BE CARED FOR BY RAILROAD MAN

PHILADELPHIA, June 12.—W. W. Atterbury, vice-president of the Pennsylvania railroad, whose automobile killed Mrs. Mary E. Madden of Radnor on Sunday night, will provide for and educate the four children of Mrs. Madden. Their father died several years ago. Mr. Atterbury yesterday created a trust fund the income of which will provide for the children for many years.

Claret Tague, who was with Mrs. Madden when she was struck, is still in a serious condition at the Bryn Mawr hospital. Mr. Atterbury will not be arraigned until Tague is in a condition to make a statement as to the cause of the accident or dies. The physicians in charge declare he will live.

YOUNG BOYLE LOWELL BOXER SCORED ANOTHER VICTORY IN NEW YORK

Johnny Boyle, the clever Lowell boxer, scored his third successive victory in New York Saturday night at the Fairmount A. C. He sent his opponent to the mat four times for the count of nine, but was unable to finish him because of the condition of his hands. Young Boyle has made a grand impression in New York and is assured of a number of good matches in the fall. He has been advised by the club doctors and by Willie Ritchie, the little champion, to lay off during the summer and give his hands a rest so that he will be in the best of shape about September.

DANCING EARL GETS ESTATE OF $495,000 FROM HIS FATHER

LONDON, June 12.—By the death of his father, the Marquis of Hertford, last March, the Earl of Yarmouth, who succeeds to the title, inherits a personal estate valued according to the probate at $495,000, and many valuable heirlooms, including silver mounted claret jugs presented to his father by the Prince of Wales in 1868, a hunting whip given to his ancestor by George IV, and a number of letters from the royal family, in addition to much real estate in Great Britain as well as ten plantations in Ceylon. Yarmouth, who is known as the "dancing earl," was the husband of Alice Thaw of Pittsburgh, but she secured a divorce from him some years ago.

LOWELL "COPS" DEFEAT SALEM

In Fine Game Today— McCarthy in Great Form

The Lowell police ball team defeated the Salem police team in a fine game at Spaulding park today. There was a good attendance present and all greatly enjoyed the game. The score was 11 to 6 and Lowell won because of heavy batting. Jack McCarthy pitched for Lowell and he was in fine form, allowing the Salem team but eight hits. Kenny, the Lowell first baseman, was the hitting kid of the game. In five trips to the plate he got as many hits. Mike Winn, in left for Lowell pulled off several good catches and also potted four good hits. Guthrie, of Lowell was also strong with the willow and he piled up a quartet of bingles. Manager Donovan was on the receiving end of the Lowell battery, and he caught a fine game and also did some great coaching. Monahan at first for the visitors played well and he also batted out a clout that went for a home run. As "King" Kelly, Lowell's third baseman, joined the benedictus today he was not in the Lowell lineup, his place being taken by Guthrie. The game was one of the best of the season and Lowell's new lineup was very satisfactory to the management. The teams were composed of the following: Lowell, McCarthy p. Donovan c. Lynch ss. Winn 1b. Clark cf. and Cooney rf. Salem, Bozak p. Ayres c. Monahan 1b. Coffey 2b. Collins 3b. Rehal ss. Whelton 1b. Hennessy rf. and Bagley cf.

THE SECRET OF SUCCESS

Genuine Merit Required to Win the People's Confidence.

Have you ever stopped to reason why it is that so many products that are extensively advertised, all at once drop out of sight and are soon forgotten? The reason is plain—the article did not fulfill the promises of the manufacturer. This applies more particularly to a medicine. A medicinal preparation that has real curative value almost sells itself, as like an endless chain system the remedy is recommended by those who have been cured, to those who are in need of it.

In an interview on the subject a prominent local druggist says: "Take for example Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, a preparation I have sold for many years and never hesitate to recommend for in almost every case it shows immediate results, as many of my customers testify. No other kidney remedy that I know of has so large a sale."

The success of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is due to the fact that it fulfills every wish in overcoming kidney, liver and bladder diseases, corrects urinary troubles and neutralizes the uric acid which causes rheumatism.

A free trial bottle will be sent by mail, absolutely free. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., and mention this paper. Regular size bottles sold at all druggists—50c and $1.00.

T. Franklin Wood, O. M. I. The choir sang the Greg. Mass, under the direction of Mr. John J. Kelly. The bearers were Messrs. William Clark, Bartholomew Murray, George Murphy, Joseph McCarthy, Timothy Fitzgerald, and John Flannery. The burial took place in the family lot in St. Patrick's cemetery, where Rev. T. Franklin Wood, O. M. I., read the final prayers. Among the beautiful floral offerings were a large pillow of roses, pink and ferns from the husband and children inscribed "Wife and Mother," a large pillow of roses and pink inscribed "Sister," from Mr. and Mrs. Boker of New York City, standing cross on base inscribed "We Miss You," from the Richards family; standing cross on base from the Townsend family; spray of white pinks from Mr. and Mrs. John Townsend; wreath of galax leaves and roses from Mr. and Mrs. Owen Duggan; standing wreath on base from the Crony family and Miss Della Keirce; standing cross on base inscribed "At Rest," from Mr. and Mrs. John Flannery; wreath of waxed flowers, Miss Agnes Duffy; wreath of ivy leaves from Mrs. Witham and family; standing star on base inscribed "Good Bye Kate," Mr. Bart. Murray; spray of pinks from Mr. and Mrs. George Murphy; sheaf of wheat from the Flannery family; standing wreath on base, inscribed "At Rest," from the Beaming room of the Massachusetts mill; spray of roses from the Greeley family and sprays from the following: Miss Scartall and the Cunningham family; William Collins, Miss Rebecca Conway and Mr. and Mrs. William Clark. George B. McKenna was the undertaker.

BECAME THE BRIDE OF EDITOR
MOORE TODAY

PITTSBURGH, Pa., June 12.—Lillian Russell, actress and singer, was married here today in the Hotel Schenley to Alexander P. Moore, editor of the Pittsburgh Leader. Only relatives and a few intimate friends attended.

Mrs. Moore, who is here with a show, will leave tonight for the east and about the same time Mr. Moore, who is one of the Roosevelt leaders in Pennsylvania, will start for Chicago.

REWARD OF $52,500

NEW MOVE MADE IN COGHAN MILLIONS MYSTERY

LONDON, June 12.—A reward of $52,500 is offered for a will which is believed to have been made in favor of his parental relatives by the late Henry Thomas Coghlan, who died in November, 1892, leaving an estate valued at $3,500,000.

It appears that Emma Coghlan, who died in 1920, left $500,000 to her son Henry Thomas. The latter lived the life of a reclus in 14 Hyde Park gardens. By parsimony and prudent investment he ran this up to three quarters of a million pounds. He quarreled with everyone. He shut himself up in his house and saw none of his relatives for 50 years.

At his death the house was ransacked for a will, but none was found. Every book in the place was separately examined but to no purpose, and the will never was found. In the end the fortune was divided among the next of kin, four in number, after which there was much litigation.

A search for the heirs had a remarkable sequel in 1905 in the king's bench court in Dublin when an inquiry agent brought a suit against Lady Stewart, who thought she had discovered in the person of a piano tuner the heir to the Cogan millions and with whom she had arranged that she should have a share in the estate.

Finally, however, Lady Stewart found that she had made a mistake and the Dublin court declined to make any order upon her to "discover" documents or answer interrogatories.

THE OLD GUN CAPTURED AT BUNKER HILL MAY BE RETURNED

OTAWA, Ont., June 12.—Colonel Hughes, minister of militia and defense has received a request from the Bunker Hill Monument Association of the United States, that the old gun captured at Bunker Hill in 1776 by the English and now resting on the clifftop at Quebec be returned.

The Massachusetts Historical society is back of the request. It is probable that in view of the peace centenary the gun will be returned by the Canadian government and a communication will shortly be sent to the war department at Washington, setting forth Canada's willingness as an evidence of international good will to surrender the field piece.

HOW THIN PEOPLE MAY PUT ON FLESH

Great Discovery by Em- inent Specialists

Judging from the countless preparations and treatments which are continually being advertised for the purpose of making thin people fleshy, developing trim neck and bust and replacing ugly hollows and angles by the soft curved lines of health and beauty, there are evidently thousands of men and women who keenly feel their excessive thinness, and it therefore gives us real pleasure to publish herewith a simple prescription which, by correcting faulty metabolism and stimulating the activity of certain sluggish vital organs, quickly produces a marvelous transformation in the appearance; the increase in weight frequently averaging from 4 to 5 pounds the first week, and very rarely less than two. This increase in weight also carries with it a general improvement in the health. Catarrh, dyspepsia and nervousness, which nearly always accompany excessive thinness, all gradually disappear; dull eyes become bright and pale cheeks glow with a bloom of perfect health.

The prescription, which contains no dangerous drugs and is absolutely harmless, calls for 2 oz. Tincture Cardomom Compound, 2 oz. Fluid of Salitogen, 2 oz. Elixir of Callaya and enough water to fill an 8-oz. bottle, and can readily be prepared by any druggist. The activity of certain vital organs should be taken about 20 minutes before each meal. Eat all you want but chew your food thoroughly.

Inquiry develops the fact that this prescription is frequently filled at Hall & Lyon's Pharmacy in this city, and by other prominent central city druggists, and we are led by their statements to add the following:

(CAUTION: Although the above prescription is unequalled for relieving nervousness, indigestion and catarrhal troubles, it should not, owing to its remarkable flesh growing properties, be used by anyone who does not desire to put on flesh.)

WOLFGANG KNOCKED OFF RUBBER

For the First Time This Season by Brockton —Score 12 to 5

Brockton gave Lowell the worst beating of the season at Spaulding park yesterday afternoon and added to the defeat Wolfgang, Lowell's star twirler, who succeeded him, was also hit hard. The Brockton players hit the ball to all corners of the lot, as 16 hits with a total of 25 demonstrated how the Shoe Men hit the ball. And while hitting in great style Brockton piled up one dozen runs to the five that Lowell scored. Yesterday was the first time this season that Lowell's split ball pitcher was forced to give up the ship. He was hit harder than ever and Zeller's offerings were also easy for the Brockton pennant chasers. Brignolla, who proved easy for Lowell last Friday, was on the mound and only in one inning did Lowell do much damage to his shoats, that being the second when the erstwhile champs got three runs. While all the Brockton men hit in good style, the batting of Boardman and Howard was great. The former got four nice big hits for the first time while Paul was three with three for the total of five. In the field the work of Smith, the left field for the visitors, was of the circus variety. The Brockton team showed why it is at the top of the ladder, the reason being explained in two words—great hitting. The game in detail:

First Inning Brockton broke the ice in the first inning by sending one man across the plate. Kauff struck out and Smith drew a free pass and then stole second. Howard also drew a base on balls. Boardman singled to right field and Smith scored. DeGroat threw to Lavigne to get Smith and Lavigne sent the ball to second to get Boardman. The ball was then sent back home again and Howard was caught between third and home.

In the latter half of the inning Clemens hit a grounder to Barry and was out at first. McGraw hit to DeGroat and died a similar death. DeGroat hit to Brignolla and was out at first. Score: Lowell 0, Brockton 1.

Second Inning In the second inning the visitors went out in one, two, three order. Barry hit to Miller and was out at first. McGraw hit to Wolfgang and was also out at first. Sullivan hit to the drive to DeGroat and was the third man out.

Lowell turned the tables on the visitors in the latter half of the inning when they scored three runs. Bouttes started off by hitting to Sullivan and going out at first. McGraw drew a base on balls and Miller got hit by a pitched ball and walked to first. Burdell struck out. Lavigne singled to center field and McGrawwell scored. Miller going to third and Lavigne going to second on the throw. Wolfgang hit to Sullivan, who fumbled and was safe at first. Miller scoring on the play. Clemens singled over shortstop and Lavigne crossed the plate. McGraw hit to Sullivan, who threw to second, getting Clemens. Score: Lowell 3, Brockton 1.

Third Inning In the third inning Wadleigh singled to center field and Brignolla followed with a strikeout. Kauff fumbled to Lavigne. Wadleigh went to second on a passed ball. Smith was the third man out, he being retired on a strikeout. Lowell scored another run in this inning. DeGroat flied to Sullivan and Bouttes sent the sphere into left garden for two bases. McGrawwell then singled to right field and Bouttes scored. McGrawwell subsequently stole second. Miller was hit by a pitched ball for the second time. The ball bounced back and struck Wadleigh's hand, splitting one of his fingers. The injury was so severe that it was necessary for him to retire from the game and Carrigan took his place. Burdell flied to Smith, who threw to Howard, getting McGrawwell at second for a double play. Score: Lowell 4, Brockton 1.

Fourth Inning Brockton scored another run in the fourth inning. Howard singled to right field and Smith scored. DeGroat flied to Sullivan and Bouttes sent the sphere into left garden for two bases. McGrawwell then singled to right field and Bouttes scored. McGrawwell subsequently stole second. Miller was hit by a pitched ball for the second time. The ball bounced back and struck Wadleigh's hand, splitting one of his fingers. The injury was so severe that it was necessary for him to retire from the game and Carrigan took his place. Burdell flied to Smith, who threw to Howard, getting McGrawwell at second for a double play. Score: Lowell 4, Brockton 1.

Fifth Inning In the fifth inning Brignolla hit to Miller who fumbled and he was safe at first and Kauff followed with a single to right field. Smith singled, filling the bases. Howard then came to bat and hit the ball to right field for a two-bagger, scoring Brignolla and Kauff. At this point Wolfgang was taken out of the box and Zeller took his place. Boardman singled to center and Smith and Howard scored. Boardman going to second on the throw in. Barry hit to Bouttes and was out at first. Boardman going to third. Boardman later scored on a passed ball. McGraw flied to Clemens. Sullivan flied out to Clemens. DeGroat flied to Howard and Bouttes hit to Sullivan who fumbled and the runner was safe. McGrawwell flied out to Kauff. Miller got a two-bagger to left sending Bouttes to first. Burdell went out Boardman to first. Score: Lowell 5, Brockton 7.

Sixth Inning Carrigan was the first man up in the sixth but he sent the ball to the pitcher and was retired at first. Brignolla went out, Miller to first. Kauff sent the ball to right field for a two-bagger but he died on second base for Smith sent a line drive which Burdell flied to first. Lavigne flied to Smith. Zeller was the second man out, fliing to McGraw. Clemens went out, Howard to first. Score: Lowell 5, Brockton 11.

Seventh Inning Howard started off in the seventh by smothering the ball to left field for a two-bagger. Boardman did the same thing and Howard scored. Barry beat out an infield hit, Boardman going to third. McGraw flied to Bouttes. Sullivan sent the ball to Zeller and was out at first but Boardman scored. Carrigan sent the ball over the left field fence for a home run and Barry scoring. Brignolla singled to left field. Kauff went out Zeller to first. McGraw went out. Sullivan to first. DeGroat flied to McGraw. Bouttes singled to center field. McGrawwell went out, Howard to first. Score: Lowell 5, Brockton 11.

Eighth Inning In the eighth inning Smith sent a fly to Burdell. Howard was the second man out on a fly to DeGroat. Boardman was the third out. Miller to first. Miller hit the sphere to Boardman and was out at first. Burdell sent a grounder to Barry and was out at first. Lavigne hit in front of the plate. Carrigan throwing him out at first. Score: Lowell 5, Brockton 11.

Ninth Inning Barry got a three-bagger to right field. McGraw flied to Clemens. Sullivan flied to Clemens and Barry scored on the put out. Carrigan flied to Miller. Longman went to bat for Zeller. He went out Brignolla to first. Clemens flied to McGraw. McGraw hit to center field for a three-bagger. DeGroat fanned. and Boardman singled to left. Barry hit to Miller who threw to Burdell getting Boardman at second. Howard going to third on the play. McGrawwell singled to right field and Howard singled to right field and the ball to scored. Sullivan knocked to Bouttes who got Barry at third. Carrigan was third out on a fly to Clemens.

Smith made two good running catches in the latter half of the inning but despite the good work of the Brockton left fielder Lowell scored another run. Lavigne flied to Smith, who made a nice running catch and then Wolfgang flied to Kauff. Clemens went to first on a free pass. He started to steal and second and Carrigan up throwing to get him throw bad and Clemens circled the bases and reached home. McGraw flied to Smith. Score: Lowell 5, Brockton 2.

Stovall May Make a First Division Club Out of Browns

George Stovall, the Brown's new leader, is now beginning to show his managerial ability. He has been in Louis for a second rate pitcher it was charge only a few weeks, but the world that the American league had now lights from start to finish. Stovall showed great managerial ability in Stovall the Browns' manager. The Cleveland last year. Had it not been that the deal was already framed by which Harry Davis was to take Browns into a real baseball team Stovall should do it.

SPITBALL IS HARDEST TO HIT

"Marty O'Toole," says Hank O'Day, manager of the Cincinnati Reds, "has a spitball that breaks something like Walsh's, but he has nowhere near as much speed nor anything like as good control, and yet he is getting more strikeouts—getting them against good batters too. Rather hard to figure, but he's getting away with it in clever style."

Notwithstanding the Reds can't understand how O'Toole gets away with it, it is probable that he will be a successful pitcher unless something happens to his arm.

There is no greater pitcher than Ed Walsh of the Chicago Americans, and in intelligence Big Ed also ranks high. He says the spitball is and will continue to be the most effective ball a pitcher can throw.

One can understand how O'Toole could fan Bescher (a star batter on the Cincinnati team) three times straight and also make every other man on the team miss them after reading what Walsh says he can do to such hitters as Cobb, Crawford and Jackson, the stars of the American league. The White Sox twirler says: "When I've got my spitter breaking right I can beat any ball club in the world. No use trying to bat against it, it's simply unhittable. Larry Lajoie, Ty Cobb and all other hitting stars of the American league will tell you the same story. Ask Lajoie about the time I fanned him in Cleveland with the American league championship at stake."

"The spitter is a terror when it works right. One day I had Detroit in the nine hole, and you know the Tigers are some hitters. I think Cobb and Crawford are two of the greatest hitters the game ever produced. The spitter had them all standing on their heads. Neither Ty nor Sam could get it out of the infield. I held them hitless for eight rounds and had two gent's gone in the ninth when my catcher nuffed a foul tip. If he had only held the leather it would have meant another out and given me a no hit game against the Tigers. The maff gave the batsman one more chance. He dumped a roller to Tannehill, who had a hard play to make and missed his man. The scorer called it a hit. "Limer Stricklett invented the spitball in 1901. I swiped the idea from Elmer and have been perfecting it ever since. Now I think I've got the spitball down better than any other man in the game."

O'LEARY WALKED 50 MILES AND DEFEATED 2 OPPONENTS

The Veteran Covered the Distance in Ten Hours and Fifty-two Minutes

Dan O'Leary, the well known pedestrian who has been in the walking business for many years, is still as clever as ever. His latest stunt was pulled off at San Jose last week when he walked a distance of 50 miles in 10 hours and 52 minutes. A San Jose paper of last week publishes the following article on the race: "The walking match was the result of a three-cornered argument between the principals at Shell Mound park last Sunday at a picnic, where athletic contests were held. O'Leary has three times defeated Weston, the cross country walker, in limited matches, and it was he who introduced six day walking matches. Considering the age of the winner and the heat of the day, his feat is considered a wonderful one. He wore trousers and an outing shirt and old-fashioned square-toed shoes of velvet kid. He attributes the failure of his two opponents to their lack of experience in selecting footwear for the trip. Both of them were put out of it by blisters. The roads there feet, Stelmer quitting the party were exceedingly dusty in places."

BIG BASEBALL TEAMS NEED GOOD MEN ON COACHING LINE

Baseball managers are beginning to realize the necessity of a good coach. By that is meant a player of experience and brains who can take his stand at third base when his team is at bat and use intelligence in directing the batting and base running of the men.

Without the shadow of a doubt that has been the secret of the wonderful success of McGraw, the New York manager. He has had teams which were not considered pennant contenders, but they have literally "run their way" into the world's series. Stolen bases, sprinting from second to the plate on hits and from third home on long flies have given them the run many times which was needed to win a close game, and it was McGraw standing on third who detected just the right time to take a chance and intelligently directed his men in their base running.

New York baseball writers always howl when McGraw is banished from the game for a day or more for protesting too vigorously to an umpire. They do not say Johnny has to be on the field to inspire his men, to pick the pitchers or do the many other things which come under the duties of a manager. They declare it is his coaching at third base which is missed.

How many games are lost by one run? Look it up and you will be surprised. And in those games it will be found that invariably the team which lost had men on second and third many times, and they either did not try to score or were thrown out at the plate when they did. There was no intelligent coach at third to instruct them what to do and the right time to do it.

During the season it probably happens once in every game that the coach at third has an opportunity to send a man home or hold him at third. Is that man wise enough to know what to do? To measure with his eye the distance the ball has to travel and decide whether the runner can beat it to the plate? If he is not, he should never be permitted to stand in the coach's box at third. It will be noticed that McGraw never trusts that important duty to another when the game is close.

CALLED A FAKE PILGRIM A. A. SHOW WILL BE HELD TONIGHT

REFEREE LEFT RING DURING COULON-HAYES BOUT NEW HAVEN, June 12.—Johnny Coulon of Chicago, the heavyweight champion, last night figured in a fight with Frankie Hayes of St. Louis which fans looked upon as a fake. The bout was scheduled to go 10 rounds, but at the end of the third Referee Fitzgerald left the ring, refusing to officiate in what he said was a "frame-up."

Upon leaving the ring the referee declared that the boys had been faking from the start and that they had reached to fight after he had warned them. Chief of Police Cowles ordered the fight to go on, and Announcer Doherty acted as referee. The boys went at it again, but before they had been fighting a minute in the fourth round, Hayes went to the floor. He remained there all the count of eight, but after a couple of seconds went down again, this time being counted out. The fighters were roundly hissed as they left the ring.

BOMBARDIER WELLS COMING NEW YORK, June 12.—Bombardier Wells, the heavyweight titleholder of England, and Al Falzer, a "white hope" aspirant for heavyweight honors, were matched yesterday to fight 10 rounds in Madison square garden Friday, June 28, under the auspices of the Garden A. C.

N. E. CONTRACTS AND RELEASES ANNOUNCED BY SECRETARY MORSE

BOSTON, June 12.—The following contracts and releases were announced last night by Jacob C. Morse, secretary of the New England league of baseball clubs: Contracts: Lowell—Peter Clemens. Worcester—Bert Haas. Lawrence—James Burns. Terms accepted: Lynn—A. C. Johnson. Released: Worcester—Hyland, Yarrington, Joseph Madden. Lawrence—Thomas J. Scanlon. Lowell—H. M. Yount; Lowell to Haverhill, W. A. Cooney; Haverhill to Lowell, Ed McGrawwell. Suspended: Brockton—Joseph Weaver. Lowell—J. A. Heey. Reinstated: Lawrence—Karl Kolseth.

LEADERS CERTAIN THAT DR. PORRAS WILL BE ELECTED PRESIDENT

PANAMA, June 12.—The opposition leaders held a conference in the chambers of Dr. Bellario Porras to the presidency of the republic, asserting that the registration lists show 80 per cent of voters in his favor. Some alarm was caused yesterday by a report that the government had received a large consignment of rifles and ammunition and was about to distribute them among the supporters of the official candidate, Gen. Pedro A. Diaz, in the interior towns. Tranquility, however, was soon restored when it was stated that the American supervisory committee, headed by Col. Green, commander of the zone forces, had stopped delivery of the weapons until after the elections.

NAP PLAYERS WANT TO PUT ON WEIGHT

Apparently the Cleveland players are running a race to see which can take on most weight instead of taking off. Outfielder Joe Jackson boasts that he is ten pounds heavier than he was last season, and Pitcher Crum Kaler goes him four pounds better and claims to tip the scale at 196. Kaler says he gained the fourteen pounds through hard study in college last winter.

FAKE CHARITY LEECHES TO BE STARVED OUT

Report Will be Made When All Organizations Have Been Investigated

BOSTON, June 12.—Bogus charity must go.

Fake philanthropy might as well go out of business gracefully and peacefully because if it doesn't make its exit that way, it will in another.

All this is because Robert W. Kelso, the quietly energetic secretary of the state board of charities has set his foot down on these clever but misguided persons who obtain a nice easy living under the guise of charity.

Three million dollars is the sum that Massachusetts gave to charity last year. A good fat percentage of that sum found its way into the coffers of utterly non-charitable institutions and others so badly managed that they never do anyone any good.

Mr. Kelso's watchword is: "A private charity is a public trust."

Working from that premise, Mr. Kelso has started in to clean up the charity record of Massachusetts. He doesn't advocate any desperate measures. He intends to resort to the courts only when that course is absolutely necessary.

Instead his weapon will be that subtle but ever efficient influence called public sentiment. He will, in other words, starve out the private business enterprises masquerading as philanthropies by cutting off their source of income.

These institutions depend on the people. Therefore, Mr. Kelso intends to acquaint the people with the motives and intents of every charity in Massachusetts. When he has done that he feels his duty will have been accomplished. The people can continue to give their money just how and where they see fit, but they will be doing it with their eyes open.

Is there a gigantic charity trust? Get the annual report of the state board of charities and judge for yourself.

Many Below Standard

Mr. Kelso admits it will take him three or four more years to accomplish his purpose, but he declares that when the job is done, it will be done thoroughly and efficiently. Already he has inspected 100 of the 110 charities in Massachusetts and has found that 22 per cent are very much below standard.

"I think it would be safe to say that conditions in the charities remaining to be inspected will be just as bad, if not worse," Mr. Kelso informed a reporter. "The charities we have inspected have been selected at random and I am convinced that as we continue our inspection, we will find more cases of fraud and mismanagement than less."

"So far we have not published the names of the charities that are not on the level because the board has decided that its efforts will be more successful if the names are not made public until the entire inspection has been made. We fear that if the names of the worthless charities were given out, many just as worthless but not yet inspected would make material for themselves. They might advertise that their institutions were all right, that fact still remaining to be proven."

"When we have completed the inspection we will get out a report that will classify each and every charity, whether they are good, bad or indifferent. In that way we will weed out the signally bad concerns and help the inefficient ones to improve and get on an effective basis."

Since the report of the board's inspection has become public the secretary has been besieged with telephone and mail inquiries from the inspected charities to know just where they stand. Some, according to the secretary, were actuated by sincere concern in the matter and others probably by guilty consciences. In every case the board acquits the trustees with the board's decision in regard to their standing.

Result of New Laws

The report this year is the first of its kind and comes as a direct result of the two laws passed two years ago, called the "investigation" law and the "inspection" law. The first named provides that all new applicants for a charity charter must submit to an investigation before being provided with the necessary charter. If the board finds that the formation of the proposed corporation is to cover any illegal business or that the persons asking for incorporation are not suitable persons a certificate is refused. The second law requires the state board of charities to make annual inspection of all charitable corporations which consent to inspection. Not to consent to inspection—well, of course, injure the standing of a charitable concern in the eyes of the public.

Mr. Kelso hopes to obtain further legislation to simplify his work. He desires an amendment of the law to insure the prompt filing of annual returns under oath, and, in the case of new corporations, a clear and definite statement of their purpose.

He also desires to get legislation effecting "dead" charity charters. Under present conditions a charity charter once granted is never revoked. Hundreds of such charters not in use are still in existence and could be obtained and used by unscrupulous persons.

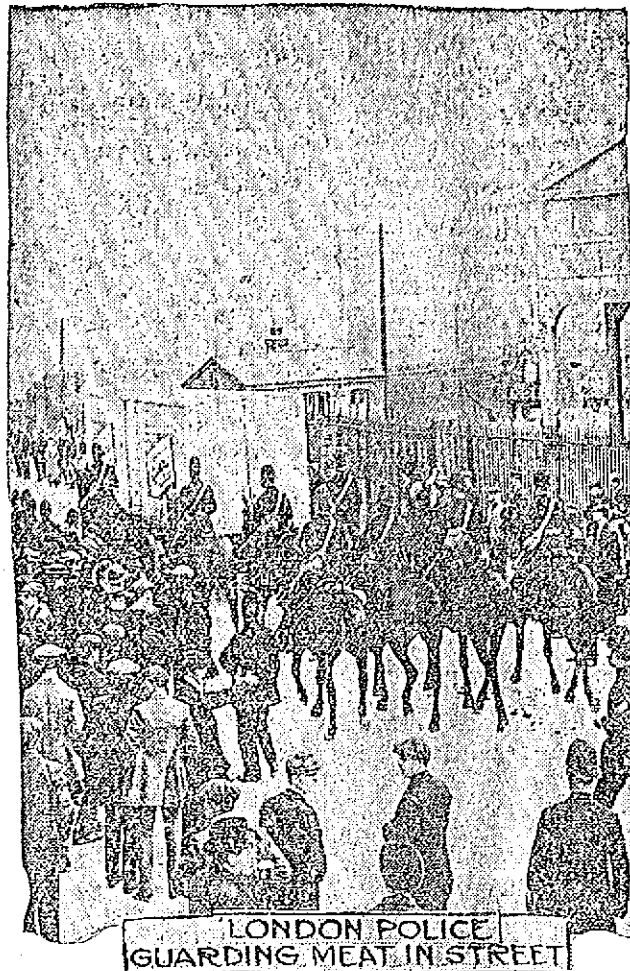

Mr. Kelso would like to have the law regarding charitable corporations the same as that regarding business corporations, which requires that all certificates not used for a period of two years be revoked.

"The public should bear in mind," continued Mr. Kelso, "that a statement by a corporation that it has been inspected by the board does not necessarily mean that such society has the board's approval. It does mean that the board has in its possession certain facts in regard to each society inspected which may or may not be favorable to the society."

PREFERENTIAL TRADE FAVORED

LONDON, June 12.—The congress of chambers of commerce of the British empire today adopted the proposal of the Toronto board of trade in favor of preferential trade within the British empire by 127 votes against nine. Fifty-eight chambers of commerce abstained from voting. Another resolution urging free trade reciprocity and close political union between the British West Indies, Canada and New Foundland in view of the approaching completion of the Panama canal was also adopted. The next congress is to be held at Toronto in 1915.

300,000 Transport Workers in England Ordered Out on Strike

LONDON, June 12.—For weeks London has been threatened by a famine because of the strike of dock workers. Provisions have been scarce and have been delivered from docks in automobile vans guarded by platoons of police. As a culmination of the trouble 300,000 transport workers all over England have been ordered to quit work, and if they obey the order all foreign and coastwise shipping will be tied up. The Transport Workers' federation embraces thirty unions, including boiler makers, gas workers, clerks and employees in other lines identified with transportation. If successful the strike will be the most disastrous of the labor revolts which have kept the country in a turmoil for the past year disturbed business and strained the diplomacy of the liberal government in keeping the good will of its labor allies. The real question being fought out is the recognition of union labor, and the cause of the trouble which has already cost business and wage earners hundreds of thousands of pounds is a stevedore named Thomas, who refused to join the union.

31,300 MEN IN LOWELL OLD ENOUGH TO VOTE

There Are 11,163 Men in This City Who Have Not Been Naturalized

According to figures recently given out by the National Census Bureau, Lowell has only 41 negroes and 50 men of other nationalities, such as Japanese, Chinese and other Asiatics, and Indians.

Lowell has 31,300 men old enough to vote, and the state of Massachusetts has 1,923,692 men of legal voting age.

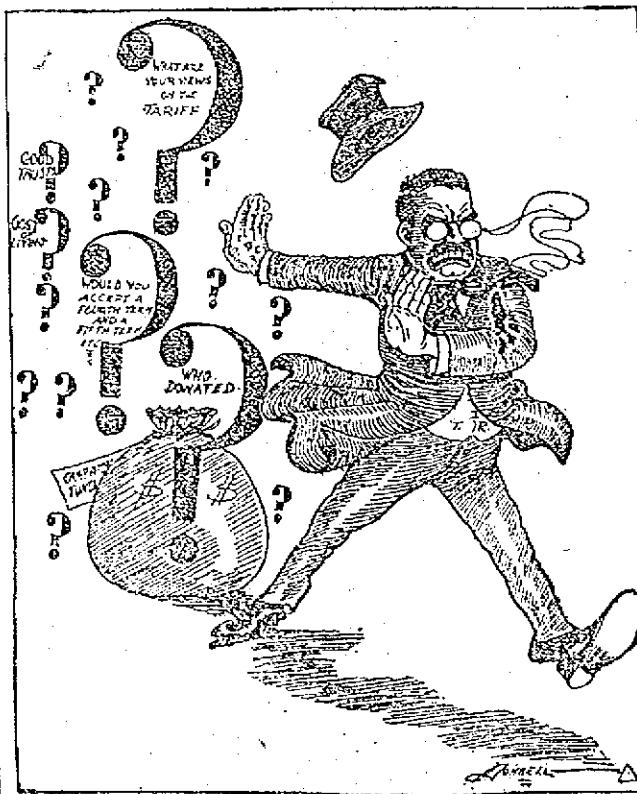

Of Lowell's 31,300 are of native parentage, 7155 of foreign or mixed parentage, 7028 are naturalized, and 11,163 are not naturalized.

Throughout the country, 229 cities of more than 25,000 population aggregate 25,543,616 inhabitants, and these cities contain 9,004,422 males of legal voting age, or 31.5 of their combined population. The entire country has 26,993,151 males of voting age, or 29.4

Of the whole number of males of voting age in the 229 cities taken together, native whites of native parentage number 2,900,244, or 32.2 per cent; native whites of foreign or mixed parentage, 2,040,097, or 22.7 per cent; foreign-born whites, naturalized, 1,567,795, or 17.3 per cent; foreign-born whites, not naturalized, 1,930,516, or 21.4 per cent; negroes, 110,444, or 5.8 per cent.

The equivalent numbers and percentages for continental United States as a whole are: Native whites of native parentage, 13,211,751, or 48.9 per cent; native whites of foreign or mixed parentage, 4,408,966, or 16.7 per cent; foreign-born whites, naturalized, 3,035,333, or 11.2 per cent; foreign-born whites, not naturalized, 2,511,273, or 9.1 per cent; negroes, 2,492,337, or 9.1 per cent.

BRILLIANT RECORD MADE BY LOWELL BOY

He Received Class Prizes at Princeton

Mr. Joseph O'Donoghue of 239 School street, this city, a student at Princeton college, graduated from that institution a few days ago with highest honors. The young man outside of receiving several class prizes for his four year academic course was also given the degree of B. S.

Mr. O'Donoghue is well known in Lowell and his many friends will be pleased to learn of his great success at college. He is a brother to Mr. John O'Donoghue of the claim department of the Bay State Street Railway Co.

VERDICT OF $15,000 IN KILLPATRICK CASE

Was Reported Late This Afternoon

In the case of Gertrude C. Killpatrick, administratrix of the estate of the late J. C. W. Killpatrick vs. Chas. E. Cotter and Philip Dexter, trustees of the Tremont building in Boston, the jury yesterday returned a verdict of $15,000, $5000 for conscious suffering and $5000 for death. In this case it was alleged that the late J. C. W. Killpatrick was fatally injured in the elevator of the Tremont building. It was claimed that before he had entered the car the boy who was running it closed the door and started the machine with the result that Mr. Killpatrick's left leg was caught between the door and sash and when the steel head of the elevator descended it wrenched the man. Deceased it is also claimed passed away two months later as a result of the injuries.

FLAG DAY WILL BE OBSERVED ON NEXT FRIDAY

Friday, June 14, will be Flag Day, for the governor hath said it. His Excellency has issued a Flag Day proclamation and it contains some very noble sentiments. On Flag Day we observe the anniversary of the adoption of our national flag by the Continental congress in the year 1777.

Gov. Foss asks that the flag be conspicuously displayed on that day and says that all persons having the opportunity to do so should honor the day by some special act or observance in harmony with the occasion.

"The children," he says, "should be told again the ringing stories of the American patriots and inspired to a patriotism as enduring as theirs."

His Excellency says that the highest use to make of Flag Day is to resolve upon a more active and determined effort in solving every civic problem; to put these resolutions into effect, and to ensure the coming generation a government and a flag which shall still inspire an undiminished loyalty and devotion.

WOMAN STRUCK BY AUTO IS IN PRECARIOUS CONDITION

Baby Was Thrown From Carriage But Was Not Injured—Driver Was Not Held

LAWRENCE, June 12.—Clarence W. Gutteridge, driving an automobile that was in the races at Rockingham Park last Saturday, ran down Mrs. Mary Haykel, wife of John Haykel of 38 Valley street, last night on Lawrence street in front of the Y. M. C. A.

Gutteridge told the police that he was returning to his garage after throwing a turtle he had found into the Spicket river. While passing the Y. M. C. A. building he swung the car over toward the sidewalk to avoid hitting two girls who ran across the street. In doing so he struck Mrs. Haykel, who had just pushed a baby carriage off the sidewalk. In the car was her 14 months' old baby. Onlookers said that if Mrs. Haykel had jumped back to the sidewalk and abandoned the baby carriage she would not have been injured herself. Instead she tried to push the carriage beyond the auto. Two ribs and her breastbone were shattered, and she suffered other injuries. The child was hurled from the carriage, which was demolished, but the baby escaped uninjured.

Mrs. Haykel was removed to her home nearby in a precarious condition. A young woman who witnessed the accident fainting and was revived in the Y. M. C. A. Gutteridge was not detained by the police, but his story was investigated.

TWO MEN LOST THEIR LIVES IN FALL WITH AN AEROPLANE

The Victims Were Lieut. Hazlehurst and Aviator Welch—Aeroplane Was Wrecked

COLLEGE PARK, Md., June 12.—Lieut. Leighton W. Hazlehurst, 17th Infantry, U. S. A., of Macon, Ga., and A. L. Welch of Washington, D. C., were killed here at 6.13 last night when a new army aeroplane of the Wright type in which they were flying fell to the ground at the Army Aviation school and was wrecked.

Death to both was instantaneous. The machine was wrecked. Welch was flying the machine and Lieut. Hazlehurst was a passenger. They had ascended to a height of about 200 feet when they dipped to come down and go up again.

When about 20 feet from the ground and going at a tremendous speed, estimated by eye-witnesses at between 50 and 60 miles an hour, the machine collapsed and dashed to the earth with terrific force.

Apparently the weight of the engine and two aviators caused the collapse.

Capt. C. Def. Chandler, who, with seven other army officers witnessed the crash, immediately appointed a board of inquiry into the accident. The machine was brought to the army aviation field three weeks ago by Orville Wright. Welch came with him from Dayton, and intended spending the season here as a teacher for the Wright company.

Fifteen flights had been made in the machine at College park without accident. Both Lieut. Hazlehurst and Welch had separately made successful trips in the biplane earlier in the afternoon.

Welch, whose home was here, had been for three years in the employ of the Wright brothers, and was said by Orville Wright to be one of their best teachers.

THE BARNUM SHOW DREW LARGE CROWDS

Everybody Well Pleased With Performance

The "greatest show on earth" has come and gone, and of Lowell's good money the circus people copped somewhere in the neighborhood of ten or fifteen thousand dollars. The circus management was well pleased with Lowell and allowed that if there is any scarcity of money here it wasn't shown at the "big top" where it was a case of "jump up, shove up, push up and if you can't get up, throw your money up and we'll throw your ticket down." That's the kind of lingo that one of the ticket pushers was passing out and he was a very busy man. If the girls loved fat men like they love a circus the fat men would be walking on air. Yesterday's circus crowd was one of the biggest ever seen in Lowell and the crowd seemed to appreciate everything that was worth while. Say what you will, the women and children seem to get the real good out of the circus. The average man goes because he feels it more or less his duty to take his folks, and one good thing about a circus is that the fellow who is in the habit of leaving his best girl at home on all occasions doesn't dare to duck when the circus comes around. The circus makes him show his hand and taking it all in all the circus is a great institution.

THE HOUSE FLY STRIKE

Will soon invade your home, poisoning every article of food that they light on, and sometimes bringing sickness in your family. All this can be avoided by having J. B. BOSTON, June 12.—Bunker Hill day, June 17, is generally observed in and around Boston. While the day is not a legal holiday, most business houses close. The celebration centers in Charlestown and around Bunker Hill monument. Fireworks and parades form the major part of the celebration.

CROP CONDITIONS
WASHINGTON, June 12.—Crop conditions in general on June 1 averaged for the United States slightly better (9.3 per cent) than on the same date last year but moderately lower (1.7 per cent) than the average June condition of recent years. Crops as a whole were above the average in the North Atlantic states, due mostly to favorable hay prospects and in the far western and northwestern states, being particularly favorable in Oregon. They were below the average in southern states and in the North Central states east of the Mississippi.

A LITTLE NONSENSE

NOT ACCLIMATED. "That was a terrible thing that happened to that Boston girl last week." "What was that?" "She went into a cold-storage plant and was overcome by the heat."

CHAFING-DISH PARTY. "Was your chafing-dish party a success?" "Great! We spoiled all the food early in the evening, and then went to a regular restaurant."

MATCHED. "What did they have in common?" "Gardening. He had a business plant, and she had widow's weeds."

NO CHANCE TO LEAVE. "Are you going anywhere this summer?" "No, I can't get away. You see, we have two major league ball teams in this town, and the schedules have been so arranged that there will be a game here every day during the season."

AN IMPORTANT GUEST. Parker: "The banquet tonight can't get along without me." Harper: "You have a very good opinion of yourself. Billed for a speech?" Parker: "No, I was invited to listen."

A REASON FOR THE QUESTION. Mrs. B.: "Did you mail that letter I gave you this morning?" Mr. B.: "Why do you ask?" Mrs. B.: "I want to see if your veracity is of a higher order than your memory."

BOTH SIDES CONFIDENT IN THE BOSTON STRIKE

There is No Sign of Settlement of the Dispute as Yet—
Cars Running Today

BOSTON, June 12.—The struggle between the striking motormen and conductors of the Boston Elevated railway and the company over the question of a recognition of the union and a minimum wage seemed far from settlement today. The company claimed to be operating all its lines on normal schedules.

The strike leaders maintained that only half the service was being given to the public and that on many of the lines cars were seen scarcely more than once an hour. It was also claimed that the cars were inefficiently manned.

The district court judges continued to impose house of correction sentences of from two to six months on those accused of participating in disorders. In Brighton, Sanberg, who was charged with having some knowledge of the dynamite alleged to have been found beside the car tracks, pleaded not guilty and was held in $5000 for the grand jury.

Chief Justice Aiken of the superior court issued an order postponing 41 damage cases against the Boston Elevated railroad which have been on the jury list in Suffolk and Middlesex counties for several months, until the fall term. The postponement was ordered because of the difficulty in empaneling unbiased juries.

Up to noon there had been no disorder along the company's lines. The extra duty imposed upon the police of Boston, Brookline and Newton has compelled the stewards of the Brookline Country club to engage extra officers in New York to guard the grounds during the steeplechase meeting on Saturday and next week. It has never before been necessary to bring police to this state from so great a distance.

The strike leaders announce their willingness to leave all disputed questions to former President Tuttle of the Boston & Maine road. "We have offered to arbitrate," said J. G. Colgan of the executive board of the union, "but it does not seem to be acceptable at the present time. We now make this additional proposition."

At the home of Mr. Tuttle in Brookline it was stated that the proposition had been submitted to him but that he had declined to be drawn into the strike.

CARS RUNNING

BOSTON, June 12.—Cars ran on all surface, elevated and underground lines of the Boston Elevated railway today on normal schedules, according to the company, but on far less satisfactory terms than on previous days in the opinion of those employees who struck six days ago for a minimum wage and recognition of the union.

For the first time since the strike began the company ran cars between midnight and sunrise. Many night workers who are members of labor unions refused to ride.

The company officials and strikers reiterated their determination of fighting to the end and declared their confidence in ultimate success. To substantiate their claims both sides declared that additions to their forces were being constantly received and that there were numerous desertions from the other side.

made to resemble a Chinese puzzle. Trust Officer W. F. Thornton has received an opinion from the attorney general advising him that from now on persons under 21 years, in a school sense, are minors, and in order to go to work they must present to the prospective employer an age or schooling certificate or an employment card.

The last meeting having to do with the separation of accounts in the grade crossing in Walker and School streets in Boston this afternoon. The total cost of the work is estimated at $200,000, and the city is called upon to pay one-tenth of that amount. City Solicitor J. Joseph Hennessy will represent the city; E. M. Hall, the old Nathan & Lowell railroad; Asst. Atty. Gen. Frederick Greenhalge will look after the state's interests, and G. S. Selfridge will appear for the Boston & Maine railway.

Requisition to Sell House
It is not very often that the purchasing agent is called upon to sell a house, but the water department has made requisition upon Purchasing Agent Foye to sell a house on the boulevard. The house is situated near the upper pumping station on the boulevard. It is a cottage house and in good condition.

Municipal Concrete Plant
The commissioner of streets and highways has about made up his mind that a municipal concrete plant would be a good investment for the city. He has made requisition for a supply of tar and pitch and he will do his own sidewalk work instead of having it done by contractors. He has also made requisition for 6000 barrels of cement for street and sewer work. The purchasing agent called for the bids today.

The Governor's Congratulations
The following letter from Governor Foss to Mayor O'Donnell is self explanatory:
The Commonwealth of Massachusetts, Executive Chamber, State House, Boston, June 11, 1912.

Dear Mr. Mayor: The Grand Trunk bill was signed yesterday. Let me thank you, and through you the members of the board of trade of Lowell for your message.

I now urge upon you, and your association of merchants to co-operate in securing and enforcing a large measure of state supervision over all our railroad interests.

The benefits to be derived from the Grand Trunk may be lessened if such supervision is not brought about. A powerful state commission, having larger jurisdiction over transportation matters, is the only possible guarantee the state can have of a satisfactory public service, no matter how many railroads enter the state. With kind regards, Yours very truly, E. N. Foss.

Hon. James E. O'Donnell, Mayor of Lowell, Lowell, Mass.

To Remodel Building
The A. C. Wheelock estate has been granted a permit at the office of the inspector of buildings to remodel the building at 472 Central street. The alterations will be quite extensive and the estimated cost of alterations and additions is $1500.

VAUGHN CASE

NOT TAKEN UP BY GOVERNOR'S COUNCIL TODAY

There was no action taken by the governor's council today on the petition for a pardon for Olan Vaughn, the Lowell man, but it is expected that at the meeting of the council next Wednesday the matter will be taken up.

MANY PERSONS WERE DROWNED TOWN WRECKED BY CLOUDBURST BRICK BUILDINGS SWEEPED AWAY

SHERIDAN, Wyo., June 12.—A wall of water from a cloudburst in the mountains last night swept down Clear Creek canon onto the town of Buffalo, partly wrecking the place and probably causing a number of deaths. Early today the water was entering the second story windows of the telephone exchange and all communication had ceased. Buffalo has about 2000 inhabitants and is situated in the Clear Creek canon, the sides of which are steep and high. While only a few blocks wide the town is more than a mile long. The telephone operator at Buffalo called Sheridan and reported a great wall of water had swept down the canon, carrying away several brick blocks. Many people had been drowned, the operator said, but no idea of the number was obtainable. "The water is now flooding into this room through the second story window and —" Here the wires went down and no further communication was possible. Automobile relief parties were made up here and started for Buffalo, which is 40 miles from Sheridan.

ORDAINED PRIEST 15 YEARS AGO

School Children Honor
Rev. Lawrence F. Tighe, O. M. I.

Rev. Lawrence F. Tighe, O. M. I., pastor of the Immaculate Conception church, was tendered a grand reception by the pupils of the parish school in the school hall this afternoon in honor of the fifteenth anniversary of his ordination. The hall, which was crowded to the doors with pupils and former pupils of the school of which the Rev. Tighe himself is a graduate, was beautifully decorated for the occasion. The children, in charge of the sisters of the school and Rev. Owen McQuaid, O. M. I., assembled at the hall at 2:30 o'clock and at 3 o'clock Fr. Tighe escorted by Fr. McQuaid entered the hall and was given a grand ovation.

Fr. Tighe is a Danish boy, having been born in the parish and the first school that he attended is the one at which today's reception was held. He then went to the Lowell High school and graduated with high honors. After leaving the Lowell schools he went to Ottawa university, and was ordained to the priesthood in Notre Dame cathedral, Ottawa, on June 12, 1897, by the late Right Rev. Joseph P. Duhamel, then archbishop of Ottawa. Fr. Tighe then taught at the university for several years after which he was transferred to the Holy Angels college at Buffalo, New York, where he also taught. He was then assigned to the Sacred Heart parish in this city as a curate, where he was stationed for a long time, being then transferred to St. Andrew's church, North Billerica, where he was pastor for some time. He came to the Immaculate Conception church as its pastor in August, 1910, and has made great progress and endeared himself to all his parishioners.

After the entrance of the pastor into the hall a grand program was carried out. The first number was an introductory duet, "Spring's Carriage," by Misses Vera Kennedy and Mary Na-honey; greeting song, senior pupils; declamation, Master Joseph Taff; recitation, "The River" and "The Water Lilies" by the alumni class; addresses, class of 1911 and class of 1912; rose drill, junior pupils; reading, Misses Vera Kennedy, Helen Connor, Anna Finnerty, Jennie Concanon, and Elizabeth Kennedy; finale, "Holy God."

In honor of the occasion Fr. Tighe was presented a purse of gold and numerous flowers. He responded, thanking the children for the honor they showed him and assured them that he would ever remember their kindness.

Tomorrow morning in the church a mass in honor of Fr. Tighe's anniversary will be celebrated, and the singing will be by the children of the school.

50 BOYS INJURED IN CAR ACCIDENT

Electric Ran Into An Open Switch

BOSTON, June 12.—Of the numerous accidents which have taken place since the strike began the most serious was that on Dudley street, Roxbury, this afternoon, when an open car on which there were fifty schoolboys ran into an open switch. Many of the boys were thrown off and ten of them were so badly cut that they were sent to the hospital.

has been learned. The train was an excursion from Calhoun, Ga., to Chattanooga. Rumors were received at long distance telephone exchange that between

SUIT FOR $15,000 IS ON TRIAL TODAY

Plaintiff Injured in Accident in Bigelow Co.

The case of Sava Zaharia vs. the Bigelow Carpet company, an action of tort in the sum of $15,000, which was started in superior court late yesterday afternoon was resumed before Judge Stevens this morning.

The plaintiff is a young Greek girl who it is claimed came to this city in the fall of 1911 and secured employment in the card room of the Bigelow Carpet company. It is alleged that she was only 15 years of age when she was employed, and was unable to read or write the English language. While operating a carding machine her hair was caught and a portion of her scalp was torn off.

The suit is brought on the grounds that the young girl secured employment without having the proper certificate required before a child between the age of 14 and 16 can work. Follis Zaharia, a brother of the plaintiff, first brought suit as next of kin to Sava, but he was afterward removed and the name of her counsel, A. S. Howard, was substituted.

The first witness called was Klara Mahola, a young Greek girl who was employed in the same room when the accident happened. She testified through an interpreter, that she taught Sava how to run the machine. Sava had been working one week when she was hurt. She said she did not tell Sava of the danger of getting her hair caught in the machine because she did not know of it herself. She also testified she had been working in that department about one month when the second hand told her to show Sava Zaharia. The same witness occupied the biggest part of the forenoon in cross examination.

DEPOT NEWS
TWO EMPLOYEES OF BAGGAGE DEPT. TO BECOME BENEDICTS
Robert Green, a popular employee of the baggage department who is to be married to Miss Blanche Mason this evening at 8 o'clock was presented a beautiful couch by his fellow employees at the depot last evening. He was comely surprised but in fitting words thanked his friends for the gift. The "boys" all wished "Bob" good luck and will give him a send off at the depot tomorrow morning when he takes the 7 o'clock train for Boston. He will then go to New York and will be home to his friends at 141 Hale street next week.

Another employee of the baggage department, it is said, will soon join Bob in the matrimonial sea and they do say that he has his house on A street all furnished.

Thirty-five immigrants, mostly Poles, arrived at the depot on the Fall River train this morning. In the party there were but six women. They took trains for Manchester and Berlin, N. H., and Lawrence and Haverhill. The new train schedule will be out

BLACK HAND LETTER SENT TO PHYSICIAN

Two Girls Were Placed Under Arrest by Federal Officers
On Serious Charge

LEWISTON, Me., June 12.—Mary Gurkha, 18 years old, and her sister Anna, 15, were arrested today charged with having sent a "black hand" letter to Dr. Joseph Scannel, a physician of this city. The arrest occurred in Riverside cemetery, near Dr. Scannel's residence as the result of a trap set by the physician.

The specific charge on which they were arrested was the alleged fraudulent use of the mails. Federal officers were notified and it was planned to take them to Portland late today. The girls are Lithuanians and claim to live here. Both were unknown to the physician but he thinks he saw one of them while attending a family last fall. A letter demanding the payment of $2,000, to be put into a tin can and buried in Riverside cemetery not later than yesterday, was received recently by Dr. Scannel. After arranging with detectives he put a check for the amount drawn on a bank in which he did not have an account, in a can and buried it last night. The two girls went to the cemetery today and were seen by one of the detectives who had remained in hiding all night. It is claimed that he saw one of them withdraw the check from the can and hide it in her clothing. The two girls are believed to have been used by a third person who planned the affair.

LOWELL LOAN BILL KILLED IN HOUSE

And Disagreement Reported Today

The committee on conference at the house of representatives on the so-called $100,000 loan for Lowell, which is composed of Representatives Jewett, Butler and Aclim, this morning reported a disagreement and the said report was accepted by the house. This may mean that Lowell's demand for permission to borrow outside the debt limit is to be refused. Another attempt may be made in the senate to revive the bill or a different one to meet the Lowell demand.

INSURANCE CASE WAS HEARD BEFORE JUDGE PICKMAN TODAY

The case of Alexander Smith, executor, against the Prudential and Metropolitan Life Insurance companies, was heard before Judge Pickman in the civil session of the police court this afternoon. This was an action of contract in which the plaintiff seeks to recover the amount of two policies held on the life of John Kasper, now deceased. The defense claims that the deceased made false answers as to his health when he made application for insurance and also that another person was substituted for him when application was made.

Daniel J. Donahue and John W. McEvoy appeared for the plaintiff and the insurance companies were represented by Messrs. Cottrell and Bacon of Boston.

Milady's Toilet Table

"Dull and lifeless hair makes a woman look older than she should. Dry shampooing makes the hair brittle, dirty and clean—full of life and lustre. Put four ounces of powdered cerise root in a fruit jar and mix it well with an original package of Therox. Sprinkle a teaspoonful of the mixture on the head once a week and brush it out thoroughly. Therox makes hair grow when everything else fails.

The natural beauty of a person's face is marred by thin and straggly eyebrows and lashes. Rubbing gently with plain pyroxin will induce them to grow long, thick and silky. The eyebrows should be brushed daily to train them to grow into an arch.

Instead of powder and paint, use a simple complexion lotion made at home by dissolving an original package of mayonaise in a half pint of witch hazel. Gently rub over the face in the morning and all your skin will be as clear, soft and satiny as a baby's.

With no dark or muddy discolorations. "Helatone" is equal to the electric needle for the removal of superfluous hair. It is positively painless, and not nearly so expensive. Just mix a little Helatone with water; cover the wild hairs with this paste; let it remain two minutes; then wash the skin, and the hairs will be gone."

WOMAN WANTS $150,000

For Alienation of Husband's Affections

NEW YORK, June 12.—Miss Lillian Keller, an attractive woman, who has lived in an apartment at No. 111 West Eleventh street for several years with James C. Kuhn, a manufacturing confectioner, has been made defendant, together with Mr. Kuhn, in a libelous suit brought by Mrs. Clara B. Kuhn, Kuhn's wife.

Mrs. Kuhn lives in Detroit. In her complaint she claims Miss Keller illegally obtained possession of two factories and the land on which they stand, from her husband, and she asks that both Miss Keller and Kuhn be enjoined from disposing of them.

The factories are located at No. 7 Caroline street and Nos. 12-18 Clark street. Kuhn bought the former parcel in March, 1904. Almost immediately thereafter, Mrs. Kuhn says, he conveyed it to Miss Keller. The Clark street property was bought a year ago, and was also conveyed to Miss Keller, Mrs. Kuhn alleges.

Mrs. Kuhn charges Miss Keller holds the property in trust for Kuhn, in order to defraud Mrs. Kuhn of her dowry rights.

Mrs. Kuhn is represented here by Rosenthal & Horanace, No. 2 Rector street. Mr. Rosenthal declared yesterday that he had prepared papers in an alienation suit, in which Mrs. Kuhn charges that "Lillian Keller deprived her of her husband's protection, society, aid and support, his affections, weekly and maliciously galling his affections, and induced and enticed him to leave the city."

Mrs. Kuhn values her husband's affections at $150,000 and sues for that amount.

MRS. "TOM" PIERCE WAS ARRESTED

For Raising Up a Disturbance

NEW YORK, June 12.—Katherine Pierce, known in other days as Mrs. "Tom" Pierce, the dashing wife of a Boston millionaire, intrepid horse-woman, leader in the snarlier element of Boston society and daring originator of "stunts" for the enjoyment of the gay set at Newport and New York, appeared in the Yorkville court yesterday to answer to a charge of disorderly conduct.

She had created a disturbance in Maxine's, so the manager of that resort declared; had kicked through the window of a taxicab. It was also asserted, and had used language more picturesque than elegant.

When the former society leader and rider to hounds appeared before the bar of Magistrate Corrigan's court her white sailor hat was battered in the crown and set askew on her head, her hair was matted, her cheeks were spattered with dirt and there was in her eyes a tired, troubled look.

Mrs. Pierce had come to the cafe late, the complaining witness declared, in the company of a man and a woman and she immediately began to create disorder. When protests were made, she swore roundly at the head waiter, and the manager himself, he said, threatening to kick things over and create chaos if she were not let alone. Finally, after much persuasion, she was induced to get into a taxi, but the instant the door was closed Mrs. Pierce had rebelled, so Mr. Carroll swore, and had kicked through the window, yelling to be let out. Carroll called a policeman at that juncture and had her arrested.

Mrs. Pierce was accompanied by two women when she appeared in court, and during the recital of the complaint against her she drew from her reticule a large roll of bills and began to count them, evidently anticipating a fine. When Carroll told the magistrate that he wanted Mrs. Pierce put under bonds and to come to his place again, Carroll looked sharply at the thin face and dark circled eyes of the prisoner and said: "You hear what the man says. Shall I put you under bonds to leave his place alone, or will you make a promise not to go there again?"

"I promise," Mrs. Pierce said, and she was discharged.

FINGER PRINTS

MAY LEAD TO DETECTION OF MURDER OF MOORE FAMILY

VILLESCA, Ia., June 12.—M. W. McClaughy, Bertillon expert of the federal prison at Leavenworth, Kan., who was called here to make records of the bloody finger prints left by the murderer of the Moore family and their guests last Sunday night, is in Omaha today in consultation with chief of Police Donahue.

McCloughy is convinced that some one familiar with the Moore family and house committed the murder. He takes little stock in the theories which attempt to link the tragedy with similar crimes in Kansas and Colorado. So far as the public is aware not a single one has been found to the identity of the murderer.

Meat Association, which has been carrying on an active warfare in Brooklyn all boroughs. And if last night's demonstrations are to be taken as an indication of the preparedness of the women of Manhattan to push the war-brownville and East New York in a fare, the greatest expectations of the strenuous fight for lower prices the Brooklyn agitators will doubtless be realized.

The meetings last night—one at Terrace Hall, No. 206 East Broadway, and the other at Jefferson Hall, No. 60 Columbus street—were attended almost wholly by women. There were a few men present, but women realize that it is really they who are the ones who suffer from the high prices, and they have been quick to take advantage of this opportunity to make their burden lighter.

Most of the women were mothers of families, and East Side families usually are large. So the high prices of meat in that vicinity are an especially hard burden.

The constantly growing strike presents the unique spectacle of the butchers siding with the women in their warfare. It is their contention that the men above them are getting all the profits, and they see in the movement for lower prices an opportunity to better their own condition.

Yesterday a number of East Side butchers closed up shop in sympathy with the strikers, and about seventy-five more have agreed to do so today. This decision was arrived at last Saturday, when a meeting was held to ascertain the attitude of the meat sellers.

CITIZENS OF BALTIMORE PREPARE FOR CONVENTION

There Will be 100,000 Visitors
During the Democratic Convention

BALTIMORE, June 12.—The same energy that the citizens of Baltimore displayed in going after the democratic national convention is evident in the preparations that have been made here for the comfort and entertainment of the convention guests and the convenience of the political leaders and delegates who will name the party's next candidate for president. As soon as Baltimore was chosen for the convention city, the Maryland legislature authorized the city to expend $55,000 in repairing and relighting and decorating streets and buildings. This was exclusive of the $35,000 appropriated for remodeling the Fifth Regiment armory, where the delegates will assemble.

The committee that went to Washington to lay the advantages of Baltimore before the democratic national committee was composed largely of bankers and business men. One of their first arguments was the presentation of a certified check for $100,000 as a guarantee that Baltimore would do all that it promised. The committee agreed to furnish one of the best convention halls in the country, to remodel it as the national committee saw fit and to do everything in its power to all the intricate mechanism of the convention routine and look after the convenience not only of the delegates but also of the guests from all parts of the country who would attend. Preparations to fulfill these promises and go even further have been carried out here by means of thorough organization. The first step, after the meeting of the convention here was assured, was the appointment of a citizens' committee of 500, which was divided into sub-committees, and to each of these was delegated a certain part of the work. At the head of the whole organization is the Hon. Robert Crain and Mayor Preston, the latter by virtue of his office and Mr. Crain as chairman of the executive committee of the citizens' general organization. The sub-committees have charge respectively of reception, convention hall, press, visiting merchants, transportation, program, concessions and privileges, entertainments, music, publicity, floral decorations and receiving editors and publishers. The general municipal convention committee, appointed by the mayor, is subdivided into state committees, to which the delegates and visitors from the respective states may turn for information and assistance. The problem of handling a great convention crowd was two-fold—first, to bring them to Baltimore; second, to house, feed and entertain them while here. The first of these was simple.

Baltimore is proud of her transportation facilities both by rail and by water. Three railroads, the Pennsylvania, the Baltimore & Ohio and the Western Maryland, connect the city with the north, south and west and a steamship line gives it a prominent position in the trans-oceanic and coastwise trade and passenger service. Judging from the number of hotel and boarding house reservations and from past conventions, the addition to Baltimore's population during the week of June 25 will be not less than 40,000.

This estimate is the minimum here. The more enthusiastic are counting on nearly 100,000 convention guests. The special committee which investigated the city's hotel and boarding house facilities and rates has reported that all strangers can be taken care of; and visitors who are unable to find accommodations are asked to communicate with the general convention committee.

The hotel committee found that practically all the space in the larger hotels and apartments and others actively engaged in the convention. This committee, however, has prepared a list of boarding houses and private residences where one may find accommodations of almost any scale desired.

The committee made a searching inquiry into convention hotel rates and its report was to the effect that these rates were by no means exorbitant and amply justified. To meet the increased demand the hotels have been obliged practically to double their forces of employees for the convention week and, in order to get them trained, put them at work a week before the convention opens. In addition, the hotel managers have nearly duplicated their equipment of linen and tableware. The rate plan agreed upon is as follows: One of the first class hotels, for instance, where the average charge for a room and bath varies from $3 to $7 a day, will charge as many persons as occupy a $3 room $3 each, and those in a $4 room $4 each, but no one will be charged more than $4 a day even though he be one of the occupants of a $5 or $7 room. The Hotel Managers' association claims this is a fair arrangement, since otherwise a guest might expect to hire a $3 room and put in it as many persons as he saw fit, paying only a nominal service charge for each additional person. Such a service charge, the hotel men say, would not compensate them for the outlay for extra equipment and help necessitated by the convention.

The hotel committee reports that none of the hotels has raised its rates, and that room rates will run as low as $2.50 a day. It declares that a comparison with prices of cities that have taken care of previous conventions amply shows that the rates here are as low as any and in many instances lower. A booklet issued for the convenience of convention visitors contains the following paragraph regarding this subject of food and lodgings:

"Baltimore is prepared to handle a large crowd. It will be well to make reservations in advance. No one need feel disturbed, however, if reservations have not been secured in advance. A very effective plan has been developed whereby persons arriving, without having made reservations, will be able to secure comfortable quarters at no inconvenience to themselves. All that is needed, after reaching the city, is to make application at the official headquarters. These headquarters are down town on the first floor of the Equitable building, Calvert and Fayette streets. A complete register is on file there of all the vicarious gradations of quarters and accommodations, from the dollar room to the more pretentious suites. If notice is sent in advance as to the time visitors expect to arrive in Baltimore, an effort will be made to have some of the reception committee at the particular place of arrival so as to look after these who may come. Any and all information about rates and accommodations can be obtained by writing to Mr. Robert Crain, general chairman, Calvert building, Baltimore."

Baltimore has been putting her house in order for the past three months, and today she is spick and span and ready for callers. Many of the streets leading from the convention hall to the railroad stations have been repaved. The street railway company has laid special tracks and loops to handle crowds and ordered 60 new cars at a cost of $300,000.

When the city first began to prepare for the convention, plans were suggested for the erection of street arches and for decorating the public buildings with colored bunting. Later this idea was rejected, because the committee on decorations concluded that it would attain better results by confining its decorations almost entirely to lights and flowers and living green. At night the stranger in town will have no difficulty finding his way to the convention hall. He need only gaze upward and follow any of the three great beams of light which will be focused on the fifth regiment armory from three different parts of the city. These searchlights will shine forth from the tops of the Emerson and Belvedere hotels and from the tower of the Maryland Casualty Company building. The appropriation for this special lighting is $15,000. The convention hall itself will be a blaze of lights, the ribs of the curving roof being outlined by 10,000 electric bulbs. The block of Boston street leading to the main entrance of the hall will be brilliant with a collanade of electric lamps on pillars 50 feet apart. The portico of the city hall will be outlined with electric bulbs and some of the city's principal monuments will be treated in the same way.

HALL & LYON CO

67-69 MERRIMACK ST.

To supplement this display by the city the proprietors and tenants of all the tall buildings have been asked to leave the lights burning in upper rooms so that the business district at night will be ablaze.

The park department, which has charge of the plant and flower decorations, has done much to beautify the exterior of the convention hall by screening the temporary doorways and stairways leading from street to the balconies with trees and shrubs. Among the trees transplanted for this purpose are elms and oaks, some of them 40 feet tall. Baltimoreans are fond of floral displays, and appeals have been made to shopkeepers and occupants of private houses to decorate their windows with flower boxes.

To Baltimoreans the convention itself will be the whole show, but thousands of visitors that come here from all parts of the country will find plenty to occupy their attention when they grow weary of watching democratic celebrities and listening to oratory. One of the most popular trips of the week promises to be down the Patuxent river, which forms the city's fine harbor, and out into Chesapeake Bay. For the accommodation of delegates and visitors who wish to take this excursion the city has refitted the steamers Annapolis and Latrobe, which are used in winter to keep the harbor clear of ice. Annapolis, the site of the United States Naval Academy, is only half an hour's ride by trolley. Washington, the national capital, is less than an hour away.

WEATHER BUREAU

FIRST STEPS FOR ESTABLISHMENT OF A NATIONAL ONE

LONDON, June 12.—The first formal step in the campaign for the establishment of an international weather and storm bureau has been taken here by Prof. Willis Moore, chief of the United States weather bureau.

In speaking of his plan, Professor Moore said: "If the plan is adopted, so far as storms are concerned, the crossing of the Atlantic will be made as safe as a short street car journey. Great ocean liners, which have but little to fear from anything except the most destructive gale, may, by altering their course on receipt of warning by 50 miles or more, escape a rough passage, while the smaller steamers and sailing ships by making a wide detour may escape possible destruction."

Prof. Moore outlined the plan at a luncheon given him by Dr. William Shaw, head of the British weather service and the scientific staff of the London meteorological station. Professor Moore has carried the fight for the adoption of the plan into the international radio congress now in session here and all of the American delegates are under instructions to assist him in securing the co-operation of the other nations in the matter.

WILL GET A FORTUNE

Lawrence Man to Receive $200,000

LAWRENCE, June 12.—John S. Porter, owner of a livery stable on Lawrence street, this city, received word yesterday that he was one of the heirs of the late William K. Porter, the millionaire real estate owner of Boston, whose death occurred in Boston several days ago. It is reported that the Lawrence man, who was a nephew of the deceased, will receive $200,000. He lives at 23 Ave. street and has a wife and one son and one daughter. Heretofore he has simply been in comfortable circumstances. Other local relatives who will eventually benefit by the will are George Wilson, engineer at the Washington mills; David Wilson, engineer at the Wood mills; and Allen Wilson of Pelham, N. H.

CATSUP SEIZED

AND FEDERAL AUTHORITIES ARE IN A QUANDARY

BUFFALO, N. Y., June 12.—A problem that is puzzling the federal authorities is how to destroy the contents of 15,000 bottles of tomato catsup without breaking the bottles. That number of bottles was seized recently and ordered destroyed by Judge Hazel in the United States district court. The order said nothing about destroying the bottles and it is said that if this is done the firm may see the government for the value of the bottles. Judge Hazel will be asked for a further ruling.

WORK IS MAPPED OUT FOR DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION

Preliminary Matters Will be Arranged by the National Committee

BALTIMORE, June 12.—Only part of the work accomplished by the democratic national convention, which opens here on June 25th, will be performed in the convention hall. The results will appear there, but before these results are attained lights will burn far into the night at various hotels and office buildings throughout the city, where convention headquarters have been established by the national organization and the organizations supporting the candidates for places on the national ticket.

A political convention is a law unto itself. Without leaders and committees to plan their work the great body of delegates could make little headway, but even the most astute leader cannot always know when the delegates will appear carefully prepared routine. Nevertheless, until the delegates ballot and one of the candidates receives the two-thirds vote necessary for nomination, those who are trying to learn in advance what the result will be will watch these headquarters.

A national convention has been likened to a great engine, in which the fly wheel is the national committee, the governors the committees on credentials and resolutions and the fuel is the body of delegates which supply the motive power, controlled and regulated by these three committees.

The actual work of the convention started here when members of the national committee began to arrive. This committee consists of 52 members, one from each state and from Alaska, District of Columbia, Hawaii and Porto Rico. Its quarters are at the Hotel Belvedere, situated in the Mt. Royal district within walking distance of the convention hall. The two top floors of the Belvedere have been engaged by the committee, including 65 bed-rooms, many with sitting rooms attached. In addition, the committee has taken the hotel banquet hall for its sessions. In this room the committee goes over the papers filed by the contesting delegates and prepares the temporary roll of the convention. This roll will be used when the convention is first called to order. After the committee on credentials is appointed those who are dissatisfied with ruling of the National Committee will take their claims before the new committee.

The committee on credentials and the resolutions committee which drafts the platform, as yet have no regular meeting place. Some of their work may be done at the Belvedere in rooms allotted them by the national committee, and some in the rooms assigned to them at the convention hall.

Next to the rooms engaged by the national committee, the largest reservation at the Belvedere has been made by Thomas Taggart, national committeeman from Indiana. For the members of his committee and his friends Mr. Taggart has taken 50 rooms in the main buildings, with accommodations for 85 persons more in the annex and the "Blue Parlor" on the second floor as state delegation headquarters. Other national committeemen in whose names large reservations have been made at the Belvedere are: Roger C. Sullivan, Illinois; Homer S. Cummings, Connecticut; J. B. Kremer, Montana; A. J. Daly, Alaska; Alvah Adams, Colorado; Edwin O. Wood, Michigan; Clark Howell, Georgia; J. M. Guiter, Pennsylvania; Willard Sausbury, Delaware; Urey Wilson of Kentucky, secretary of the national committee, and Herman Ridder, of New York, its treasurer, also have their quarters here.

Representatives of the candidates for the presidential nomination will be early on the ground, and all of them engaged their headquarters months ago. Several of them have taken suites of offices in the downtown business section, as well as large blocks of rooms in the principal hotels. The Clark campaign committee has offices in the Munsey building, corner Calvert and Fayette streets. Gov. Harmon's managers have a suite in the Equitable building, across the street, and the Wilson committee has leased an entire small building at No. 10 East Lexington street.

The Underwood forces are the only ones that expect to have a whole hotel to themselves. They have reserved all the rooms and parlors in the Eutaw House, one of the older hostleries at the corner of Eutaw and Baltimore streets. This hotel was badly damaged by fire a few weeks ago, but it is expected that repairs will be finished before the convention opens.

The hotel headquarters of the Wilson, Harmon and Clark workers are in the Emerson, at the corner of Calvert and Charles streets. In the heart of the business district and only half a block from the Munsey and Equitable buildings. The Wilson committee has the banquet hall and parlor on the mezzanine floor and 14 bed rooms. The Harmon men have 15 sleeping-rooms and a parlor on the mezzanine floor for their meetings.

Two of the notable figures in Baltimore during the convention will be William J. Bryan and Alton B. Barker, the former three and the latter one of the choices of a democratic presidential convention. Col. Bryan comes as a delegate from Nebraska and Judge Barker as a delegate from New York. The Nebraskan and his brother have a suite at the Belvedere adjoining the rooms of the national committee, and the Nebraska delegation also has quarters in the same hotel. Judge Barker will stay at The Emerson, where the New York state delegation will make its headquarters, although not all the 50 delegates from that state have been able to obtain accommodations there.

Tammamy hall has taken 25 rooms at the Emerson, having abandoned the plan of coming to Baltimore on a big steamer and using the craft as a hotel during the convention. Other celebrities from the empire state who have suites at this hotel are Gov. Dix, U. S. Senator O'Grady and Charles A. Murphy, the Tammany hall leader. Col. George Harvey also has announced his intention of staying there. The rooms of the New York leaders are expected to become one of the important sidish grounds of convention week, since this state sends the largest delegation and its representatives come uninvited. Until developments in the convention hall itself are conclusive the deliberations of the New York leaders and conferences at the headquarters of Mr. Bryan are expected to attract the greatest attention.

The most unique—and if the weather is very warm the most comfortable—quarters in Baltimore have been engaged by William B. Hearst. For the use of himself and his friends the New York editor has taken the big roof garden on the Hotel Emerson.

Other state delegations that already have established quarters are located as follows: Hotel Renner—Rhode Island, Iowa, Mississippi, Virginia, part of West Virginia.

Hotel Emerson—Minnesota, Vermont, North Carolina, Kentucky, Missouri, part of West Virginia. The handling of the convention arrangements, separate from the purely political end, is in the hands of a large number of local committees, which have their quarters on the first floor of the Equitable building. Here a large suite of offices filled with employees will be devoted to the work of making the convention visitors comfortable and at home.

(Fill in this line, mentioning Toasties and write plainly.)

USE OF ABOVE FORM OF ANSWER IS SUGGESTED, BUT NOT REQUIRED.

We will buy 50 Post Toasties Jingles, acceptable for use in a Jingle Book, received during June, 1912, at $20.00 each.

Only the Jingles we pay for will be used, but no Jingles, whether purchased or not, will be returned.

The names and addresses of the writers of the 50 Jingles purchased in June, 1912, will be printed and mailed to each enquirer who sends us a 1c stamped and addressed envelope for return.

The Jingles will be judged honestly upon merit, so if you are a sensitive person and not a good sportsman don't try, for we have no time to "pet up" those whose Jingles are not accepted.

Fill in the missing line of the incomplete Jingle printed above, making the last line include the name "Toasties," with correct rhyme and metre.

Or, write an original Post Toasties Jingle of not less than 4 lines, any one line of which must contain "Post Toasties" or "Toasties."

As many Jingles may be submitted as desired.

No Jingle submitted in May, 1912, will be considered in this June, 1912, offer.

REBELS DEFEATED BY FEDERAL TROOPS

The Government Forces
Used Artillery

SANTIAGO, Cuba, June 12.—A detachment of government troops under Major Rosendo Collazo fought a battle with the insurgents near El Cobre, 10 miles to the west of this city, today. The rebels were defeated, losing 10 killed.

The government troops made effective use of their artillery and are now pursuing the fleeing insurgents.

ADMIRAL EVERETT WAS BURIED AT NEWPORT, R. I., TODAY

NEWPORT, R. I., June 12.—The funeral of Rear Admiral William Everett, U. S. N., retired, was held here today with full naval honors. After brief services at the admiral's home on Kay street, the body was escorted to Channing Memorial church by a regiment of apprentices from the naval training station. Rear Admiral French E. Chadwick headed the list of naval and military officers serving as pallbearers. Rev. William Jones conducted the services.

All flags at the naval stations and on the warships in the harbor were at half-mast during the funeral and a salute of 13 minute guns was fired from the training ship Reina Mercedes. After the church services, the body was escorted to the railway station for transportation to Washington. Burial will be at Arlington cemetery tomorrow.

WIDOW'S ORPHANS

TO BE CARED FOR BY RAILROAD MAN

PHILADELPHIA, June 12.—W. W. Atterbury, vice-president of the Pennsylvania railroad, whose automobile killed Mrs. Mary E. Madden of Redner on Sunday night, will provide for and educate the four children of Mrs. Madden. Their father died several years ago. Mr. Atterbury yesterday created a trust fund the income of which will provide for the children for many years.

Garret Tague, who was with Mrs. Madden when she was struck, is still in a serious condition at the Bryn Mawr hospital. Mr. Atterbury will not be arraigned until Tague is in a condition to make a statement as to the cause of the accident or dies. The physicians in charge declare he will live.

YOUNG BOYLE LOWELL BOXER SCORED ANOTHER VICTORY IN NEW YORK

Johnny Boyle, the clever Lowell boxer, scored his third successive victory in New York Saturday night at the Fairmount A. C. He sent his opponent, to the mat four times, for a count of nine, but was unable to finish him, because of the condition of his hands. Young Boyle has made a grand impression in New York and is assured of a number of good matches in the fall. He has been advised by the club doctors and by Willie Ritchie, the little champion, to lay off during the summer and give his hands a rest so that he will be in the best of shape about September.

DANCING EARL GETS ESTATE OF $495,000 FROM HIS FATHER

LONDON, June 12.—By the death of his father, the Marquis of Hertford, last March, the Earl of Yarmouth, who succeeds to the title, inherits a personal estate valued according to the probate at $495,000, and many valuable heirlooms, including silver mounted claret jugs presented to his father by the Prince of Wales in 1863, a hunting whip given to his ancestor by George IV, and a number of letters from the royal family, in addition to much real estate in Great Britain as well as ten plantations in Ceylon. Yarmouth, who is known as the "dancing earl," was the husband of Alice Thaw of Pittsburgh, but she secured a divorce from him some years ago.

LOWELL "COPS" DEFEAT SALEM

In Fine Game Today—
McCarthy in Great Form

The Lowell police ball team defeated the Salem police team in a fine game at Spalding park today. There was a good attendance present and all greatly enjoyed the game. The score was 11 to 5 and Lowell won because of heavy batting. Jack McCarthy pitched for Lowell and he was in fine form, allowing the Salem team but eight hits. Kenny, the Lowell first baseman, was the hitting pilot of the game. In five trips to the plate he got as many hits. Mike Wynn, left for Lowell pulled off several good catches and also pulled four good hits. Guthrie, of Lowell, was also strong with the willow and he piled up a quartet of bingles. Manager Donovan was on the receiving end of the Lowell battery, and he caught a fine game and also did some good coaching. Monahan at first for the visitors played well and he also banged out a clout that went for a home run. As "King" Kelley, Lowell's third baseman, joined the benefiters today he was not in the Lowell lineup, his place being taken by Guthrie. The game was one of the best of the season and Lowell's new lineup was very satisfactory to the management. The teams were composed of the following: Lowell—McCarthy p, Donovan c, Kenney 1b, Drewett 2b, Guthrie 3b, Lynch ss, Wynn

JACK MCCARTHY.
Who Pitched Fine Game for Lowell Police Team.

Clark cf and Cooney rf. Salem—Bozak p, Jones c, Monahan 1b, Coffey 2b, Collins 3b, Rehal ss, Whitton lf, Hennessey cf and Begley cf.

On next Tuesday, the Lowell team will go to Lynn and play the Lynn police team, which is considered one of the fastest in the league.

P. Franklin Wood, O. M. I. The choir sang the Greg. Jan mass, under the direction of Mr. John J. Kelly. The bearers were Messrs. William Clark, Bartholomew Murray, George Murphy, Joseph McCarthy, Timothy Fitzgerald, and John Flannery. The burial took place in the family lot in St. Patrick's cemetery, where Rev. T. Franklin Wood, O. M. I., read the final prayers. Among the beautiful floral offerings were a large pillow of roses, pink and ferns from the husband and children inscribed "Wife and Mother," a large pillow of roses and pinks inscribed "Sister," from Mr. and Mrs. Boker of New York City; standing cross on base inscribed "We Miss You," from the Richards family; standing cross from the Townsend family; spray of white gladioli from Mr. and Mrs. John Townsend; wreath of galax leaves and roses from Mr. and Mrs. Owen Degan; standing wreath on base from the Crony family and Miss Della Kelce; standing cross on base inscribed "At Rest," from Mr. and Mrs. John Flannery; wreath of waxed flowers, Miss Agnes Duffy; wreath of ivy leaves from Mrs. Whitam and family; standing star on base inscribed "Good Bye Kate," Mr. Bart. Murray; spray of pinks from Mr. and Mrs. George Murphy; sheaf of wheat from the Flannery family; standing wreath on base, inscribed "At Rest," from the Bealing room of the Massachusetts mill; spray of roses from the Greeley family and sprays from the following: Miss Shortall and the Cunningham family, Mr. William Collins, Miss Rebecca Conway and Mr. and Mrs. William Clark. George B. McKenna was the undertaker.

THE OLD GUN

CAPTURED AT BUNKER HILL
MAY BE RETURNED

OTTAWA, Ont., June 12.—Colonel Hughes, minister of militia and defense has received a request from the Bunker Hill Monument Association of the United States, that the old gun captured at Bunker Hill in 1776 by the English and now resting on the Citadel at Quebec be returned.

The Massachusetts Historical society is back of the request. It is probable that in view of the peace centenary the gun will be returned by the Canadian Government and a communication will shortly be sent to the war department at Washington, setting forth Canada's willingness as an evidence of international good will to surrender the field piece.

HOW THIN PEOPLE MAY PUT ON FLESH

Great Discovery by Eminent Specialists

Judging from the countless preparations and treatments which are continually being advertised for the purpose of making thin people fleshy, developing arms, neck and bust and replacing ugly hollows and angles by the soft curved lines of health and beauty, there are evidently thousands of men and women who keenly feel the excessive thinness of their bodies. There gives us real pleasure to publish herewith a simple prescription which, by correcting faulty metabolism and stimulating the activity of certain sluggish vital organs, quickly produces a marvelous transformation in the appearance; the increase in weight frequently averaging from 4 to 5 pounds the last week, and very rarely less than two. This increase in weight carries with it a general improvement in the health. Catarrh, dyspepsia and nervousness, which nearly always accompany excessive thinness, all gradually disappear; dull eyes become bright and pale cheeks glow with a bloom of perfect health.

The prescription, which contains no dangerous drugs and is absolutely harmless, calls for 2 oz. Fluidextract of Compound, 2 oz. Fluid of Seltzer, 2 oz. Elixir of Callicaya and enough water to fill an 8-oz. bottle, and can readily be prepared by any druggist. One or two tablespoonfuls should be taken about 20 minutes before each meal. Eat all you want but, chew your food thoroughly.

Inquiry develops the fact that this prescription is frequently used at Hull & Lyon's Pharmacy in this city, and by other prominent central city druggists, and we are led by their statements to add the following:

(CAUTION: Although the above prescription is unequalled for relieving nervousness, indigestion and catarrhal troubles, it should not, owing to its remarkable flesh-growing properties, be used by anyone who does not desire to put on flesh.)

SENT TO PRISON

DAVIS MADE FIVE ATTEMPTS TO ESCAPE

BOSTON, June 12.—Charles Davis, who holds the house of correction escape championship, was sent to state prison today for three years.

During his four months on the "island" Davis made five unauthorized exits in order to free himself from an 18 months' sentence, only to be captured and returned to his cell. Judge Stevens told Davis today that he would find the state prison a harder proposition than Deer Island.

THE SECRET OF SUCCESS

Genuine Merit Required to Win the People's Confidence.

Have you ever stopped to reason why it is that so many products that are extensively advertised, all at once drop out of sight and are soon forgotten? The reason is plain—the article did not fulfill the promise of the manufacturer. This applies more particularly to a medicine. A medicinal preparation that has real curative value almost sells itself, as like an endless chain system the remedy is recommended by those who have been cured, to those who are in need of it.

In an interview on the subject a prominent local druggist says: "Take for example Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, a preparation I have sold for many years and never hesitate to recommend, for in almost every case it shows immediate results, as many of my customers testify. No other kidney remedy that I know of has so large a sale."

The success of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is due to the fact that it fulfills every wish in overcoming kidney, liver and bladder diseases, corrects urinary troubles and neutralizes the uric acid which causes rheumatism.

A free trial bottle will be sent by mail, absolutely free. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., and mention this paper. Regular size bottles sold at all druggists—50c and $1.00.

LILLIAN RUSSELL
BECAME THE BRIDE OF EDITOR MOORE TODAY

PITTSBURGH, Pa., June 12.—Lillian Russell, actress and singer, was married here today in the Hotel Schenley to Alexander D. Moore, editor of the Pittsburgh Leader. Relatives and a few intimate friends attended.

Mrs. Moore, who is here with a show, will leave it tonight for the east and about the same time Mr. Moore, who is one of the Roosevelt leaders in Pennsylvania, will start for Chicago.

REWARD OF $52,500
NEW MOVE MADE IN COGHLAN MILLIONS MYSTERY

LONDON, June 12.—A reward of $52,500 is offered for a will which is believed to have been made in favor of his parental relatives by the late Henry Thomas Coghlan, who died in November, 1902, leaving an estate valued at $3,500,000.

It appears that Emma Coghlan, who died in 1892, left $500,000 to her son Henry Thomas. The latter lived the life of a recluse at 14 Hyde Park gardens. By parsimony and prudent investment he ran this up to three-quarters of a million pounds. He quarreled with everyone. He shut himself up in his house and saw none of his relatives for 30 years.

At his death the house was ransacked for a will, but none was found. Every book in the place was separately examined but to no purpose, and the will never was found. In the end the fortune was divided among the next of kin, four in number, after which there was much litigation.

A search for the heirs had a remarkable sequel in 1905 in the king's bench court in Dublin when an inquiry agent brought a suit against Lady Stewart, who thought she had discovered in the person of a piano tuner the heir to the Coghlan millions and with whom she had arranged that she should have a share in the estate.

Finally, however, Lady Stewart found that she had made a mistake and the Dublin court declined to make any order upon her to "discover" documents or answer interrogatories.

LOWELL HIGH ALUMNI
Arrangements for the reception to be held by the Lowell High School Alumni association on Friday evening, June 21, are practically completed and President Solon Stevens expects that there will be a very large and representative attendance. Members of all classes will be present and an inquiry agent has been arranged for the affair. President L. C. Murfin of the Boston university will be the speaker.

31,300 MEN IN LOWELL OLD ENOUGH TO VOTE

There Are 11,163 Men in This City Who Have Not Been Naturalized

According to figures recently given out by the National Census Bureau, Lowell has only 44 negroes and 59 men of other nationalities, such as Japanese, Chinese and other Asiatics, and Indians.

Lowell has 31,300 men old enough to vote, and the state of Massachusetts has 1,212,000 men of legal voting age.

Of Lowell's 31,300, 3500 are of native parentage, 11,163 are of foreign or mixed parentage, 7000 are naturalized, and 11,163 are not naturalized.

Throughout the country, 225 cities of more than 25,000 population aggregate 28,543,510 inhabitants, and these cities contain 6,604,422 males of legal voting age, or 71.5 of their combined population. The entire country has 26,598,151 males of voting age, or 75.4 of the population, 91,512,266.

Of the whole number of males of voting age in the 225 cities taken together, native whites of native parentage number 2,069,244, or 32.2 per cent; native whites of foreign or mixed parentage, 1,316,557, or 22.7 per cent; foreign-born whites, naturalized, 1,557,726, or 17.3 per cent; foreign-born whites, not naturalized, 1,339,816, or 21.4 per cent; negroes, 519,444, or 5.8 per cent.

The equivalent numbers and percentages for continental United States as a whole are: Native whites of native parentage, 12,211,131, or 48.9 per cent; native whites of foreign or mixed parentage, 4,498,500, or 16.7 per cent; foreign-born whites, naturalized, 3,035,323, or 11.2 per cent; foreign-born whites, not naturalized, 3,011,273, or 11.4 per cent; negroes, 2,435,321, or 9.1 per cent.

FAKE CHARITY LEECHES TO BE STARVED OUT

Report Will be Made When All Organizations Have Been Investigated

BOSTON, June 12.—Bopus charity must go.

"Fake philanthropy might as well go out of business gracefully and peacefully because if it doesn't make its exit that way, it will in another."

All this is because Robert W. Kelso, the quietly energetic secretary of the state board of charities has set his foot down on these clever but misguided persons who obtain a nice easy living under the guise of charity.

Three million dollars is the sum that Massachusetts gave to charity last year. A good part of that sum found its way into the coffers of utterly non-charitable institutions and others so badly managed that they never do anyone any good.

Mr. Kelso's watchword is: "A private charity is a public trust!"

Working from that premise, Mr. Kelso has started in to clean up the charity record of Massachusetts. He doesn't advocate any desperate measures. He intends to report to the courts only when that course is absolutely necessary.

Instead his weapon will be that subtle but ever efficient influence called public sentiment. He will, in other words, starve out the private business enterprises masquerading as philanthropies by cutting off their source of income.

These institutions depend on the people. Therefore, Mr. Kelso intends to acquaint the people with the motives and intents of every charity in Massachusetts. When he has done that he feels his duty will have been accomplished. The people can continue to give their money just how and where they see fit, but they will be doing it with their eyes open.

Is there a gigantic charity trust? Get the annual report of the state board of charities and judge for yourself.

Many Below Standard

Mr. Kelso admits it will take him three or four more years to accomplish his purpose, but he declares that when the job is done, it will be done thoroughly and efficiently. Already he has inspected 153 of the 749 charities in Massachusetts and has found that 22 per cent are very much below

PILGRIM A. A. SHOW WILL BE HELD TONIGHT

Gardner Went to Boston to Weigh in

Jimmy Gardner of this city, who is scheduled to fight Eddie McGoorty at Pilgrim A. A. tonight went to Boston today. He is in fair condition, but is suffering from an attack of tonsillitis. He had an operation yesterday and was feeling nicely today. As he has a forfeit up for his appearance he went to the club this afternoon. He weighed in at 2 o'clock. He will later be examined by the club physician and if able to go on he will tackle the fast western boxer. In the event of Gardner not being able to go on, Matchmaker Mooney has a competent man to take his place. The show will not be postponed and all the other bouts will be run off as per schedule. Before Gardner saw the doctor yesterday he was suffering great pain and informed the writer that he would be unable to fight, but as there is a big improvement in his condition today he expects to be able to go on.

Stovall May Make a First Division Club Out of Browns

George Stovall, the Brown's new manager, is now beginning to show his managerial ability. He has been in the city. When he was traded to St. Louis for a second rate pitcher it was charged only a few weeks, but the world that the American league had been traced up wonderfully and now fights from start to finish. Stovall showed great managerial ability in the Cleveland last year. Had it not been that the deal was already framed by which Harry Davis was to take Browns into a real baseball team Stovall should do it.

SPITBALL IS HARDEST TO HIT

"Marty O'Toole," says Hank O'Day, manager of the Cincinnati Reds, "has a spitball that breaks something like Walsh's, but he has nowhere near as much speed nor anything like as good control, and yet he is getting more strikeouts—getting them against good batters too. Rather hard to figure, but he's getting away with it in clever style."

Notwithstanding the Reds can't understand how O'Toole gets away with it, it is probable that he will be a successful pitcher unless something happens to his arm.

There is no greater pitcher than Ed Walsh of the Chicago Americans, and in intelligence Big Ed also ranks high. He says the spitball is and will continue to be the most effective ball a pitcher can throw.

One can understand how O'Toole could fan Buecher (a star hitter on the Cincinnati team) three times straight and also make every other man on the team miss them after reading what Walsh says he can do to such hitters as Cobb, Crawford and Jackson, the stars of the American league. The White Sox twirler says: "When I've got my spitball breaking right I can beat any ball club in the world. No use trying to bat against it, it's simply unhittable. Larry Lajoie, Ty Cobb and all other hitting stars of the American league will tell you the same story. Ask Lajoie about the time I fanned him in Cleveland with the American league championship at stake."

"The spitball is a terror when it works right. One day I had Detroit in the ninth hole, and you know the Tigers are some hitters. I think Cobb and Crawford are two of the greatest hitters the game ever produced. The spitball had them all standing on their heads. Neither Ty nor Sam could get it out of the infield. I held them hitless for eight rounds and had two gents gone in the ninth when my catcher muffed a foul tip. If he had only held the leather it would have meant another out and given me a no hit game against the Tigers. The ump gave the batsman one more chance. He damped a roller to Tannehill, who had a hard play to make and missed his man. The scorer called it a hit."

"Elmer Stricklett invented the spitball in 1904. I swiped the idea from Elmer and have been perfecting it ever since. Now I think I've got the spitball down finer than any other man in the game."

NAP PLAYERS WANT TO PUT ON WEIGHT

Apparently the Cleveland players are running a race to see which can take on most weight instead of taking off. Outfielder Joe Jackson boasts that he is ten pounds heavier than he was last season, and Pitcher Crum Kaler goes him four pounds better and claims to tip the scale at 196. Kaler says he gained the fourteen pounds through hard study in college last winter.

O'LEARY WALKED 50 MILES AND DEFEATED 2 OPPONENTS

The Veteran Covered the Distance in Ten Hours and Fifty-two Minutes

Dan O'Leary, the well known pedestrian who has been in the walking business for many years, is still as clever as ever. His latest stunt was pulled off at San Jose last week when he walked a distance of 50 miles in 10 hours and 52 minutes. A San Jose paper of last week publishes the following article on the race:

Dan O'Leary, 68 years old, walked from Van Ness avenue and Turk street, San Francisco, to the postoffice in this city today, a distance of fifty miles, in the remarkable time of ten hours and fifty-two minutes. O'Leary defeated Fred Stelmer and George Green for a wager of $25 each. The aged pedestrian, at one time the talk of two continents for his walking, literally walked his two opponents off their feet, Stelmer quitting the party at Palo Alto at 3:20 a. m., and Green at Lawrence at 11:15 o'clock. O'Leary reached the postoffice here at 12:52 o'clock. The start was made this morning at 2 o'clock.

The walking match was the result of a three cornered argument between the principals at Shell Mound park last Sunday at a picnic, where athletic contests were held.

O'Leary has three times defeated Weston, the cross country walker, in limited matches, and it was he who introduced six day walking matches. Considering the age of the winner and the heat of the day, his feat is considered a wonderful one.

He wore trousers and an outing shirt and old-fashioned, square-toed shoes of victor kind. He attributes the failure of his two opponents to their lack of experience in selecting footwear for the trip. Both of them were put out of it by blisters. The roads were exceedingly dusty in places.

BIG BASEBALL TEAMS NEED GOOD MEN ON COACHING LINE

Baseball managers are beginning to realize the necessity of a good coach. By that is meant a player of experience and brains who can take his stand at third base when his team is at bat and use intelligence in directing the batting and base running of the men.

Without the shadow of a doubt that has been the secret of the wonderful success of McGraw, the New York manager. He has had teams which were not considered pennant contenders, but they have literally "run their way" into the world's series. Stolen bases, sprinting from second to the plate on hits and from third home on long flies have given them the run many times which was needed to win a close game, and it was McGraw standing on third who detected just the right time to take a chance and intelligently directed his men in their base running.

New York baseball writers always howl when McGraw is banished from the game for a day or more for protesting too vigorously to an umpire. They do not say Johnny has to be on the field to inspire his men, to pick the pitchers or do the many other things which come under the duties of a manager. They declare it is his coaching at third base which is missed.

How many games are lost by one run? Look it up and you will be surprised. And in those games it will be found that invariably the team which lost had men on second and third many times, and they either did not try to score or were thrown out at the plate when they did. There was no intelligent coach at third to instruct them what to do and the right time to do it.

During the season it probably happens once in every game that the coach at third has an opportunity to send a man home or hold him at third. Is that man wise enough to know what to do? To measure with his eye the distance the ball has to travel and decide whether the runner can beat it to the plate? If he is not, he should never be permitted to stand in the coach's box at third. It will be noticed that McGraw never trusts that important duty to another when the game is close.

LEDERS CERTAIN THAT DR. PORRAS WILL BE ELECTED PRESIDENT

PANAMA, June 12.—The opposition leaders express confidence in the chances of Dr. Belisario Porras to the presidency of the republic, asserting that the registration lists show 80 per cent of voters in his favor.

Some alarm was caused yesterday by a report that the government had received a large consignment of rifles and ammunition and was about to distribute them among the supporters of the official candidate, Gen. Pedro A. Diaz, in the interior towns. Tranquillity, however, was soon restored when it was stated that the American supervisory committee, headed by Col. Green, commander of the zone forces, had stopped delivery of the weapons until after the elections.

GOLF TOURNAMENT
WEST NEWTON, June 12.—The 10th championship of the Massachusetts Golf association opened today with 70 starters in the 18-hole qualifying round on the links of the Brae Burn Country club. Up to noon the only player to break 80 was H. H. Wilder of the Country club who turned in 79.

FRANKLIN ALMY DEAD
FALL RIVER, June 12.—Franklin Almy of the firm of Almy & Milne, proprietors of the Evening News, died suddenly of heart disease at three o'clock this morning at his home on Rock street. He was 73 years old and was prominent as an officer and director in many concerns. He leaves a wife and two children.

MOROCCO WORKERS STRIKE
LYNN, June 12.—A strike of 160 morocco workers was declared today at the factory of the Illinois Leather Co. The strikers are unorganized. Practically all of them are foreigners. They demand an increase of $1 a week. At present they are receiving $9 and $10 a week. About 400 are employed at the factory, the head office of which is in Chicago.

MORE CONTESTS HEARD BY NATIONAL COMMITTEE

Lawyer Elder Argued for the Taft Forces—The President Gets Arizona Delegates

CHICAGO, June 12.—To dispose of the California and Arizona cases set for today and the Louisiana cases next on the list of states, the republican national committee set its meeting for nine o'clock today with the prospect of an all-day and long night session. The California case, in view of the statements made Monday by former Senator Dick, the Taft contest attorney, promised to bring the title to the whole state delegation into question, owing to an alleged conflict between the California state primary law and the official call of the republican national committee, issued last December at the meeting held in Washington.

The national committee's call specified that the voters of each congressional district should have the privilege of choosing two delegates to represent them in the republican national convention. Under the California primary law, although the first returns showed that the Taft delegates in the fourth congressional district were elected over the Roosevelt delegates, the secretary of state acted under the state primary law and gave all delegates to Col. Roosevelt because of his large majority in the state. Later, however, the secretary of state determined that the boundaries between the fourth and fifth districts were not clearly enough defined to make possible an accurate count of the Taft or Roosevelt votes in the fourth district. This change further complicated the case as it was presented to the committee today.

Louisiana Cases
In the Louisiana cases, which the committee expected to reach late today, the regularity of the state organization is directly at issue. Three delegates appear from the state at large, one instructed for Roosevelt and headed by National Committeeman Pearl Wright, and two for Taft, one of which the national committee recognizes as "regular."

In an attempt to heal the Louisiana split after the last republican national convention of 1908 the national committee directed a sub-committee to go to the state and try to bring the warring factions together. Members of the committee which consisted of E. C. Duncan of North Carolina, Ralph Williams of Oregon, and Secretary William Haywood of New York prepared to go into the Louisiana case in the committee today and testify as to the compromise made in the state last February.

It is claimed that the factions were brought together then and signed an agreement under which Victor Lohse became state chairman. The Lohse faction sent the recognized delegation while Pearl Wright, heading the Roosevelt delegation, claims equal regularity for his delegates.

There are two sets of delegates at large from Arizona, one for Taft and the other for Roosevelt, the latter the contesting faction. In the state convention, after the Taft men had organized, the Roosevelt followers held a convention in the same hall and elected a delegation. The contestants deny the right of the Taft leaders to fix a temporary roll call.

Just before the committee met it was declared that the claim of the Roosevelt delegates of Louisiana headed by Committeeman Wright would be that the sub-committee of the republican national committee exceeded its authority when it went to Louisiana and consolidated the former warring factions. The Wright delegation was elected under one of the old regular committees. Mr. Wright was prepared to assert before the committee that the national committee's delegation which went to Louisiana in February went there for the purpose of getting control and shutting out the possibility of a Roosevelt delegation.

Lawyer Elder Argued
Samuel J. Elder opened the arguments for the Taft forces. He said that as no primary law was in effect when the Arizona state committee called the state convention to be held June 12, doubt existed as to how the delegates should be selected. The state committee decided to leave the selection of delegates to the county committees.

"Only one contest was presented when the state committee met two days before the convention," said Mr. Elder. "It was well known that the committee was ready to hear all contests. At the convention at Tucson all the contestants received tickets. Chairman Hubert stated that every one claiming to be a delegate could be heard when some one protested against the reading of a roll call made up by the committee. 'The man who objected to the roll call was a Roosevelt man who was not recognized as a delegate on the temporary roll. 'Then apparently by a prearranged plan, the Roosevelt men rushed for the platform and there was an immediate scene of disorder. 'Mr. Elder declared that the Roosevelt forces then left the regular convention which organized 'peacefully' with sixty-eight of the ninety-seven votes which had been recognized on the 'temporary' roll previously prepared by the state executive committee."

Robert E. Morrison, who was one of the Taft delegates, declared that the state executive committee two days before the convention gave everyone an opportunity to be heard and only one contest was presented. "Mr. Morrison declared that on June 3 the convention at Tucson was opened by State Chairman J. C. Hubbell, the temporary roll adopted and nominations called for, when former Governor Joseph H. Kibbe, whose name was not on the temporary roll arose and said: 'We don't recognize the adoption of this roll. 'The Roosevelt men, Morrison declared, then rushed to the front and some of them mounted the platform. Morrison said he believed there was a 'fully developed football organization' among the Roosevelt men who proceeded to run a convention on one side of the stage, while the Taft convention was going on at the other. For twenty minutes, he said, it was impossible to hear anything. The Roosevelt men, then left. 'The part played by former Gov. Kibbe was explained by George L. Record, who defended the Roosevelt delegation. 'We claim we had a clear majority of the legal delegates in that hall,' he said. 'When the convention met Gov. Kibbe took the floor and protested on our behalf against the adoption of a temporary roll which we did not believe legal. From that time on there were two conventions and the question is which is the legal one. 'A motion of Senator Borah to send the Roosevelt delegates from Arizona was defeated and the Taft delegation was seated after a refusal of a roll call. 'A roll call also was refused on the motion to send the delegates from Francis J. Henry, holding the proxy of Thornton of South Dakota, exclaimed, 'Why, even Abe Ruef would have granted that request. 'The gentleman is out of order,' Chairman Roosevelt declared. 'Let him make a speech,' said one of the Taft members of the committee. 'I was merely informing the chair,' was the answer. 'Thanks,' said Roosevelt. 'The California contest involving two delegates from the fourth district was called and Henry took a place at the table and attorney for the Roosevelt delegates. 'Frederick Bryan of Washington opened the case for the Taft delegates. He declared they had received the majority of votes in the fourth district. Under the California primary law, however, the right of district representation had been denied, he said, and the 'unit' rule applied to the whole California delegation. 'The first contest of the day was that of Arizona's six delegates at large. 'For the Taft delegates at large appeared Samuel J. Elder, a 20-year-old attorney and former classmate of President Taft; Robert Morrison, an attorney from Prescott, Ariz.; and James T. Williams, Jr., of Tucson, one of the delegates at large. At the Roosevelt table Ormsby McFarlane joined George E. Record of New Jersey and Dwight B. Jett of Phoenix of the Roosevelt delegation. 'Just after this case was called the regular program was interrupted by an unexpected protest against the split decision late yesterday in the eleven Kentucky district cases. 'Former Senator Dick, the Taft contest manager, asked for confirmation of the report that one Roosevelt and one Taft delegate had been seated. 'How can we appeal from this decision?' asked Mr. Dick. 'I want to protest that the decision was irregular,' interrupted Mr. McFarlane, contest manager for Col. Roosevelt. 'Both attorneys made it clear they would carry it to the Kentucky case higher. 'Chairman Roosevelt said the case could be taken to the national convention and its credentials committee. 'Senator Dick said he did not want the decision passed without notice of appeal as the Taft forces thought they were entitled to both of the 11th district delegates. 'Senator Penrose demanded that the Arizona case be taken up and the Kentucky decision was stopped. 'Chairman Roosevelt said there was some doubt as to which delegation should be heard first, but as the Roosevelt delegates filed their credentials first the Taft forces would be considered the contestants. 'Mr. Kellogg called attention to the fact that the committee had already seated all the other California delegates. 'But in this one case,' said Mr. Bryan, 'the Taft delegates received a majority.' 'Bryan Questioned 'Governor Hadley of Missouri, holding a proxy for Mr. Bleber of the District of Columbia, asked Mr. Bryan if he thought the call of the republican national convention was superior to a state law. 'When the state law interferes with the party law the national committee's ruling is supreme,' said Mr. Bryan. 'Senator Penrose asked Mr. Bryan if he knew anything about 'the deliberate attempt in California' to violate the republican committee's call by passing the primary law. 'Mr. Henry objected 'to having California libeled in this way.' 'He was called to order by the chairman, who said he would have an opportunity to be heard later. 'Mr. Bryan said he believed the committee ought not to submit to the attacks that had been made upon it by Governor Johnson of California, 'even though he were governor of a sov-

WAS STRAIGHT AT THE CLOSE THIS AFTERNOON

There Was Complete Stagnation Over the Market in the Final Hour—Colorado Fuel Lost All of Its Advance—Other Features of the Trading

NEW YORK, June 12.—Dullness and irregularity were the dominant features of the opening stock market. Gains and losses were fractional except in a few unimportant instances. No change from the inactivity and irregularity of the opening was shown in the first hour. A few stocks of minor speculative importance made gains, but the standard shares were inclined to react. Prices of leading stocks rose and fell within the most circumscribed limits during today's early session on the exchange. Trading was less than in the first hour. In the corresponding period yesterday and many semi-active issues were without quotations up to noon. Such sentiment as found expression was rather bearish than otherwise, the activity of the "money trust" committee and other unfavorable factors leaving the constructive side with little ammunition. Except for a further rise in Canadian Pacific and some strength in Can. and American Mining pf., the market remained listless and without special feature during the noon hour. A few of the more prominent stocks improved their position later in the afternoon with some increase of business. The general list also manifested a better tone, aside from moderate reaction in a few specialties. The market closed steady. Composite stagnation over the market in the last hour with no material price changes save in Colorado Fuel which lost all of its advance.

THE LOWELL SUN

THREE DOLLARS PER YEAR TWENTY-FIVE CENTS PER MONTH

THE BOSTON RAILWAY STRIKE

The attitude taken by General Hancock of the Boston Elevated railway against recognizing a union of his employees is wholly untenable. The employees have the inalienable right to organize, and that is none of General Hancock's business. The law has as much right to employ union officials to represent them as General Hancock has to employ counsel to represent his company. The question is merely one of the work done and the wages to be paid for that work. The parties should be brought together to settle their differences in conference before any further injury or inconvenience be inflicted upon the general public.

One of the remarkable features of the Boston car strike is, that the strikers proceeded as soon as they quit work to prevent the cars from running. They have a right to stop work themselves but no right to prevent others from working or to interfere in any manner with the free operation of the railroad. The company has the right to hire strike breakers or anybody it may require to help operate its cars. In this it is to be protected by the police, but the nature of its business makes the police protection at all points impossible. Hence the car service was suspended in the evenings as a precaution against interference or the placing of explosives on the tracks that might cause serious damage and even loss of life. This method of conducting a railroad strike will not win public sympathy because it is wrong; it is an outrage against the public at large. This is altogether apart from the justice of the strikers' demands. The men may have a right to higher wages as things go today. It is alleged they are not as well paid as the men employed by other roads. Whether they work under easier condition we do not know. Suffice it to say they are in a conflict with their employers and there are issues involved that should be judicially settled in the interests of the public at large. The legislature should step in and investigate. The legislature is responsible for allowing such conditions to exist because it should have enacted a law making strikes and lockouts illegal in public service corporations until after the issues involved were fully investigated by state authorities or arbitrators mutually chosen and representing the state.

The Canadian anti-strike law would prevent all this trouble, but somehow the legislators are in such dread of labor on the one side and capital on the other that they do not dare undertake any such action.

THE FINANCIAL PROBLEM

When, after considerable deliberation and inquiry, the municipal board decided to appeal to the legislature for permission to refund a portion of the temporary loan which has come down from past city governments, it reached what was generally believed to be the best solution of the difficulty. That is the opinion of the expert accountant employed to examine the city's financial condition, and it is also the opinion of Chief Gettemy of the bureau of statistics who looked into the matter very carefully. Now, however, it appears that as a result of a controversy between some members of the municipal board and representatives in the legislature this proposition to borrow outside the debt limit is met by opposition in some quarters. This, we believe, is based upon political motives, the object being to discredit the present administration and leave the financial affairs of the city in as bad condition at the end of the year as they were at the beginning of the year.

It must be plain to every intelligent citizen that the present city government could not reasonably be asked to pay out of its revenues a temporary loan of $700,000 which is simply an accumulation of the deficits piled up for a number of years by the past city governments. It is best to get the permission to borrow a reasonable portion of this amount, in order to have the debt so disposed of that it can be gradually paid off. With the necessary loan of $300,000 this can be done without seriously hampering the city's business in any year; and it is beyond all question the most reasonable and most generally acceptable solution of the problem. The legislature should not be misled by political soreheads who helped to pile up the temporary debt we are now trying to dispose of without tying up the city's business.

THE CITY HALL SPASM

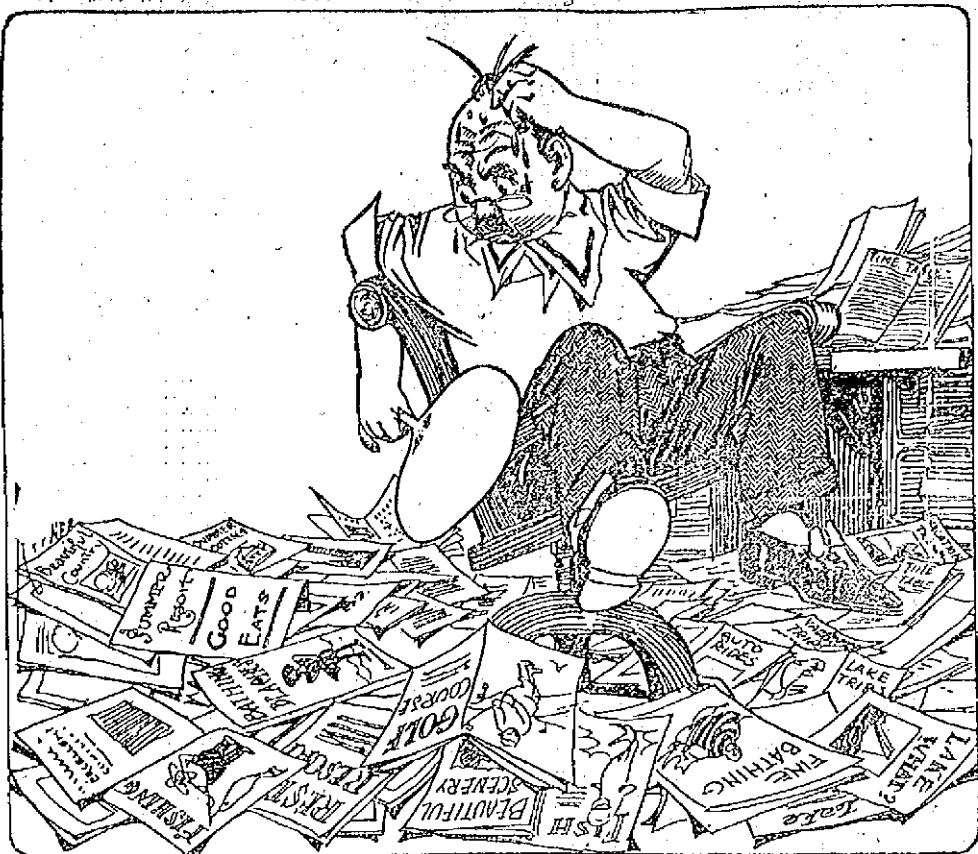

Apparently the municipal board is about to tie itself all up in a knot and to get the city into a lot of unsavory notoriety at the same time. Perhaps it is necessary that certain allegations made in the open meetings should be investigated, but if the members were imbued with the right spirit and each deeply interested in the welfare of the city and nothing else there would be no need of going to the grand jury as there would be no insinuations against the honesty of any member.

We do not expect that anything will come out of this inquiry by the grand jury. It will be a case similar to that of the councilmen who got up and shouted "fraud" at their fellow members and who when called upon to explain could not give a single fact to support their charge. The mere publication of the statement that the grand jury is to be called in puts the city government in bad odor and injures the reputation of our city abroad. The fact that the city treasurer is under investigation will of course strengthen the impression that there is something radically wrong in our municipal government. The more quietly and the more promptly these matters are settled and the less loud talk we have in future the better it will be for the city.

BEES POISONED BY SPRAYING TREES

The spraying of trees with poisonous solutions is proving disastrous to whole colonies of bees. The bee alights upon the blossom or the flower, it may be upon the petals of the rose, to extract the honey there contained; but with the honey is drawn in the poisonous stuff with which the rose bush is sprayed. It may be supposed that the bee will readily detect the presence of the poison. That is true where the poison exists in marked quantity; but where it is mingled with the nectar of the flowers in small quantities, just as benzoate of soda is found as a preservative in food, the bee, like the human, is deceived and sometimes fatally. The bee finds the honey pure as Nature made it, but in its eager pursuit finally meets the poison and before realizing the change draws in enough to taint the whole. That bee becomes deadly sick and seeks its hive not to deposit its burden but probably to die. Those who engage in the bee industry report considerable loss from this cause and a reduced output since the spraying of trees became so common.

The motor truck is the most damaging vehicle yet seen upon the public highways. With its barred wheels to grip the road and prevent skidding it digs into the macadam surface as would the spiked road roller. As these big trucks are rapidly becoming more numerous the roads must be more solid to hold up against such traffic.

QUESTION OF THE HOUR—WHERE?

Seen and Heard

A school trustee in a Minnesota town was much interested in training the children to protect themselves from the dangers of fire in any of the school buildings.

So great was his enthusiasm on the subject that he formed the habit of visiting the school and asking them invariably a question as to what they would do in case of fire. In all the schools the children had been carefully drilled as to what they should answer.

One day, however, he varied his usual program and, instead of propounding his set question, began in this way:

"Now, boys and girls, what would you do if I were to make you a little speech?"

In once voice the pupils shouted eagerly:

"We would form a line and march rapidly downstairs."

What poets write about places has not the accuracy of the guide-book; allowance must be made for the creative imagination.

A foreigner, whose imagination had been fired by Southey's wonderful word picture of the "Cataract of Lodore," journeyed across the Atlantic in order to see with his own eyes the tumultuous course of the waterfall. On arriving at Liverpool, he at once started for Cumberland and arrived with map and compass, set out on his search for the cataract.

It was a hot day at the end of a dry summer and as hour succeeded hour and still no cataract rewarded his efforts, he flung himself down on the dry bed of the streamlet on the hillside, weary and despairing. Catching sight of a native of the country, he hailed him joyfully.

"Can you direct me to the Cataract of Lodore?" he called.

The man looked at him and grinned.

"You're sitting on it!" he replied.

The attorney demanded to know how many secret societies the witness belonged to. Whereupon the witness objected and appealed to the court.

"The court sees no harm in the question," answered the judge. "You may answer."

"Well, I belong to three."

"What are they?"

"The Knights of Pythias, the Odd Fellows and the gas company."

Reginald De Koven told at a musical in Chicago a pretty story in praise of modesty.

"A group of tourists," he said, "visited in Bonn Beethoven's house. One of the tourists, a girl of 20 or so, sat down at Beethoven's piano and played the 'Moonlight Sonata' none too well—Beethoven's own work, or his own piano!"

"When the girl had finished she arose and said to the old caretaker: 'I suppose lots of famous musicians have been here and played on this instrument?'"

"Well, miss," the caretaker answered gravely, "Paderewski was here last year and his friends urged him to play, but he shook his head and said:

"No; I am not worthy."

READY FOR JUNE.

Roses are ready for June, my dear, Roses are ready for June.

Down in the silvery vales of dream The pipers are piping a tune.

The fairy dance of the world is ripe, And out of the gates of May The spirit of love on wings of dove Is helping the world to keep gay.

Roses are ready for June, my sweet, And June is a rosy time.

With ghosts of violets under the feet That trip to a sylvan rhyme.

But merry the spell of the rosy June That bath for day and night

The lay of love and the ray of love With its old, ineffable light.

Roses are ready for June, my own, And ready for thy rose-braids.

Where under thy eyes my spirit lies And swings to love's own rest.

Roses are ready, with all they know Of glory and love and cheer,

For June, the beautiful, warm, sweet month That comes with the roses, dear.

CURFEW WILL RING BY ORDER OF MAYOR

Malden Children in Danger of Being Arrested

BOSTON, June 12.—Mayor George L. Farrell of Malden wrote last night to Police Commissioner Charles G. Warren, instructing him to give his officers orders that the curfew law, which requires that youngsters be off the streets at 9 in the evening, be enforced strictly. The law has been in effect for 15 years, but neither police nor parents of the city have paid much attention to it. From now on, the mayor says, the streets at night will be clear of children, and youngsters found out after having received a warning will be arrested.

"It does not do the children a bit of good," says Mayor Farrell, "to be running about the streets at night. Many of them acquire habits which later make hobbards out of them. I know that the parents of the city will side with me, as I am aware that many of them are prevented by unavoidable circumstances from seeing to it that their own children are off the streets. According to my views, the correct method of establishing the city ideal, is to start right in with the kids and inculcate in their minds a proper respect for law and authority. As I wish to make Malden the finest city in the state, if possible, I am beginning to put my theories in effect."

LOWELL CASES

WERE HEARD IN SUPERIOR COURT YESTERDAY

William H. O'Brien appeared before Judge McLaughlin in the superior court at Cambridge yesterday on a complaint charging him with breaking and entering and larceny. Through his counsel, John J. McClure, he entered a plea of guilty and he was placed on probation.

Andrew Stanischeski, assault with a dangerous weapon, was found guilty and sentenced to the house of correction for a term of one year.

Ralph Moise and Joseph Goddard, charged with larceny, pleaded guilty and sentence was suspended, pending an investigation.

THE STATE TAX RAISE

Was Rejected by the House

BOSTON, June 12.—The matter of the state tax was again fought out in debate, in the house yesterday, Mr. Washburn of Worcester moving to substitute a bill carrying a tax of $6,500,000, for the $6,000,000 bill reported by the ways and means committee. Messrs. Crocker of Boston, and White of Newton favored this motion, and Mr. Bean of Cambridge, and Mr. Dean of Wakefield opposed it, the latter contending that it was simply an effort to discredit the Ross administration by making it appear that it has necessitated a raise in the state tax.

By a vote of 88 to 91, the house refused to substitute the $6,500,000 bill, and the matter went into the orders of the day for today.

The conference committee on the differences between the branches on the direct election of United States senator bills reported a disagreement, and by a vote of 33 to 35, the house asked for the appointment of a new committee.

By a rising vote of 25 to 77, the house refused to refer to the next general court a bill to establish a bureau of steam engineering and boiler inspection, and the bill was then given its several readings under suspension of the rules.

An order from the committee on rules for a committee to codify the election laws, to consist of three of the senate and such as the house may join, to sit during recess, and to report to the next general court was adopted by the senate under a suspension of the rules.

NEW MICROBE

TO PREVENT OLD AGE IS ANNOUNCED

PARIS, June 12.—There is much discussion among French scientists over the announcement of Prof. Metchnikoff of the Pasteur Institute, that he is studying the effectiveness of a microbe called "glycobacter" as a preventive of old age.

Prof. Armand Gautier, a member of the Academy of Sciences and of the Academy of Medicine, and Prof. Berthelot, while admitting interest in Prof. Metchnikoff's study, are inclined to doubt its practicability.

Prof. Metchnikoff says he has found a beneficent microbe in the intestines of a dog which if implanted in the intestines of man would probably generate sufficient sugar to destroy the human intestinal microbes which are responsible for the maladies of old age.

WHITE PLAGUE CURE

IS EXPLAINED BY A BOSTON PHYSICIAN

BOSTON, June 12.—Dr. Gerardo Moirai Balboni, a prominent Italian physician of the North end, demonstrated and explained yesterday afternoon in the amphitheatre of the Massachusetts General hospital, his treatment of pulmonary tuberculosis by injecting nitrogen gas into the lungs.

He lectured to the members of the Massachusetts Medical society, Dr. Balboni demonstrated the work of his apparatus by using it on one of his patients. The apparatus injects the gas into the pleural sac, so as to stop the lung from working, thereby giving the lung a chance to rest and heal.

He also had with him two women and three men patients to prove his statements.

WOMAN DROWNED

HER NIECE A WITNESS TO THE ACCIDENT

BOSTON, June 12.—Miss Rose Duggan, sister of Daniel Duggan of 41 Massachusetts avenue, Arlington, was drowned late yesterday afternoon in the shallow waters of Alewife brook, on the boundary line between Arlington and Cambridge. Her five year old niece, Ruth, gave the alarm, rushing home to her mother and crying "Auntie fell into the river."

From whom could he be learned from the little girl, they had started to pick flowers beside the brook and the bank gave way at a point where the brook is from 5 to 10 feet deep. The brook was dragged but it was more than two hours before Duggan himself recovered the body of his sister.

RUNNING BATTLE

BETWEEN POLICEMEN AND COLLIE DOG

NEW YORK, June 12.—Three policemen had a running battle with a collie dog in Yonkers yesterday after it had savagely attacked five year old Catherine Conklin of Sunnyside drive. Mrs. Conklin rushed to her daughter's rescue and beat the animal off. Then she notified the police.

Sergeant Murray in a patrol wagon got on the dog's trail and began shouting at it, but without result. Policeman William Higgins pursued it on foot, and then Policeman Caulfield took up the chase on a motor cycle.

The dog was finally driven into the cellar of the house at 413 Hawthorne avenue, where Caulfield killed it.

The dog's head was amputated and taken to the health bureau for analysis. The Conklin child's wound was cauterized. The police are trying to ascertain if any other persons were bitten.

A LITTLE NONSENSE

NOT ACCLIMATED. "That was a terrible thing that happened to that Boston girl last week."

CHAFING-DISH PARTY. "Was your chafing-dish party a success?"

WHAT WAS THAT? "Great! We spotted all the food early in the evening, and then went to a regular restaurant."

MATCHED. "What did they have in common?"

GARDENING. "He had a business plant, and she had widow's weeds."

NO CHANCE TO LEAVE. "Are you going anywhere this summer?"

NO. "I can't get away. You see, we have ten major league ball teams in this town, and the schedules have been so arranged that there will be a game here every day during the season."

AN IMPORTANT GUEST. Parker: The banquet tonight can't get along without me.

HARPER: You have a very good opinion of yourself. Billed for a speech?

PARKER: No; I was invited to listen.

A REASON FOR THE QUESTION. Mrs. B.—Did you mail that letter I gave you this morning?

MRS. B.—Who do you ask?

MRS. B.—I want to see if your memory is of a higher order than your veracity.
